

LOCATIONS

Northwestern-Alva: www.nwosu.edu

Northwestern's main campus is located in Alva, a city with more than 5,000 residents in northwest Oklahoma. This campus offers students a traditional college experience with university housing, dining in the cafeteria or Student Center, participating in campus activities, and much more. At the Alva campus, students can choose from more than 40 areas of study to earn their Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degrees. The location currently offers complete master's degree programs in education, counseling psychology, general psychology, American Studies, and Heritage Tourism & Conservation, as well as a hybrid doctoral degree for the BSN-to-DNP program.

Northwestern-Enid: www.nwosu.edu/enid

At our Enid location, you will find a state-of-the-art facility that offers traditional classroom environments, as well as ITV classes and online classes. The Enid campus offers upper-division courses for bachelor's degree completion in 19 subject areas, complete master's degree programs the same as listed for the Alva campus, as well as a hybrid doctoral degree for the BSN-to-DNP program. Many students take advantage of the Bridge Program, a cooperative agreement between Northern Oklahoma College and Northwestern, to make a smooth transition to Northwestern for the completion of your four-year degree.

Northwestern-Woodward: www.nwosu.edu/woodward

Students attending classes at our Woodward location can take the same types of undergraduate courses that are available at Northwestern's main campus in Alva. Professors are available on-site, as well as via ITV classes and online. At the Woodward campus, students can take all classes needed for general education requirements. The Woodward campus offers complete undergraduate degrees in 19 subject areas. Woodward also offers complete master's degree programs the same as listed for the Alva campus, as well as a hybrid doctoral degree for the BSN-to-DNP program.
