Department of Social Work	Primp for Prom	Spring 2020	More than 250 dresses were given away to students from 26 high schools in Oklahoma and Texas during the annual Primp for Prom event recently held in the Woodward High School Practice Gym. https://youtu.be/SAnPfJ-bMGI https://www.nwosu.edu/news/students-from-26-high-schools-attend-annual-primp-for-prom-event-in-woodward

EDUC 3313 Children's Literature	Story Walk	Spring 2020	The NWOSU candidates read to two 2nd grade classes and provided activities and snacks for all students. During the event, candidates presented to the four groups of 10-12 students and helped/tutored individual students including students with disabilities, students who are bilingual and students with different dietary needs. The teachers involved expressed appreciation, thankfulness and applauded the NWOSU candidates for their quality of work and effort. This is 5th consecutive year of doing this project. Teacher assistants were also involved and one of them expressed a desire to enroll in our program. NWOSU candidates worked hard and presented themselves in a professional way during the project. Their feedback included comments about how the projects solidified their choice to become a teacher, loving the intersections with students, and realizing their ability to serve students in their capacity. The 2nd grade students were involved, well behaved, and looked like they were enjoying the project.

On September 30th, the Enid Leadership Council went to Loaves and Fishes to sort the non-perishable items (beans) so they were ready for the community to receive the food. The beans had to be sorted by brand and type.
Enid Leadership Council	United Way Chili Cookoff	Fall 2019	Each year, the United Way of Enid hosts the Annual Chili Cookoff. Community businesses and organizations have a booth at the event and provide samples of chili that is cooked. The event is open to the public and community members buy tickets to sample the chili. All money raised is donated to the United Way of Enid. The United Way raises funds to address needs in the community such as health and human-care needs.
Enid Leadership Council	2019 Fall Fest	Fall 2019	Charitable organizations come together to create one large carnival that keeps kids off the streets and helps the community at the same time. Each organization creates a booth and the kids go from booth to booth playing different games. The booths have trinkets and candy to give away for participating. Each booth may be free or cost from 25-50 cents to play. Any money received goes back to the charitable organizations as fundraiser money. The children who come generally range from 1-10 years old. Most of the people who participate live on the East side of Enid. Generally, they may not have a safe place to participate in Fun Fall activities. This carnival allows them the opportunity to do that.
