PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY:

Several important factors help determine the assignment of student teachers by Northwestern Oklahoma State University. These are as follows: the site and location of public schools, the breadth of their programs, North Central and State Department of Education accreditation, the willingness of public school personnel to cooperate, at a minimum cost. Candidates are not permitted to return to his/her "home" school to complete Clinical Experience III. Anyone wishing to do so should discuss the appeals procedure with the Director of Student Teaching.

You are asked to list below, in order of preference, two schools in which you would prefer to complete your Clinical Experience III. Your selection will be given much consideration, but the Director of Student Teaching has responsibility for making the final selection.
