DATA ANALYSIS:

Advanced Graduate Survey Analysis

One Year Out

Overview

This survey includes 7 respondents, all female, across 3 programs and 5 graduation periods. The survey measures satisfaction with Northwestern Oklahoma State University's graduate programs using CAEP standards on a scale of 1-4.

Analysis by Gender

All 7 respondents (100%) are Female, so gender comparison is not possible with this dataset. The overall average satisfaction score for the group is 3.55 out of 4.0.

Analysis by Program

Program	Respondents	Overall Satisfaction
Reading Specialist	1 (14%)	4.00 (highest)
School Counseling	3 (43%)	3.48
Ed Leadership (Principal)	3 (43%)	3.45

The single Reading Specialist respondent gave perfect scores across all categories. School Counseling and Ed Leadership programs show nearly identical satisfaction levels.

Analysis by Graduation Year

Graduation Year	Respondents	Overall Satisfaction
Summer 2024	1	4.00
Spring 2025	1	4.00
Spring 2024	3	3.48
Fall 2024	1	3.27
Fall 2023	1	3.09

More recent graduates (Summer 2024, Spring 2025) show higher satisfaction, while the earliest graduate (Fall 2023) gave the lowest ratings. This could suggest program improvements over time.

Satisfaction Ratings by Category

Highest Rated Areas

Category	Score
Collaboration (CAEP A.1.1)	3.86
Technology (CAEP A.1.1)	3.71
Research Methods (CAEP A.1.1)	3.57

Areas for Improvement

Category	Score
Coursework Relevancy (CAEP A.4)	3.29

Data Management (CAEP A.1.1)	3.43
Data-Driven Instruction (CAEP A.2.2)	3.43

Key Takeaways

Sample Limitation: With only 7 respondents (all female), findings should be interpreted cautiously.

Strong Overall Satisfaction: Average of 3.55/4.0 indicates graduates are generally well-satisfied with their preparation.

Positive Trend: More recent graduates report higher satisfaction, suggesting possible program improvements.

Actionable Insight: Coursework relevancy to job responsibilities scored lowest. This could be an area to strengthen.
