

CPAST

Fall 2024-Spring 2025

NWOSU

What is CPAST?

The Candidate Preservice Assessment for Student Teaching (CPAST) is a unit-wide measure of students' performance on 21 rows including 13 pedagogical and 8 dispositional areas. Candidates, mentors and university supervisors hold a three-way conference at the midpoint and end of student teaching to determine ratings. Candidates are scored on a 4-point scale (0-3) where a 2.0 average indicates the group meets expectations.

CPAST was designed through a consortium of Ohio higher education institutions as a formative performance assessment, where proficiency indicates the readiness to take on the duties of a novice teacher. As students develop and apply their skills in the classroom, they demonstrate progress throughout the term with the goal for students to earn the Meets (2) or Exceeds (3) Expectations ratings by completion. Additionally, programs review and set annual targets for performance in prioritized areas.

Ohio State oversees the use and data reporting for CPAST and partners with over 130 institutions nationally. This broad data collection gives Ohio State and its partners the ability to compare candidate performance internally and also benchmark it with the institution's state and nationally as well.
