Northwestern Leadership Trust

In 2020, the leadership of Northwestern Oklahoma State University elected to make a strategic move to secure funding for a long-term student leadership emphasis at Northwestern with the creation of Northwestern Leadership Trust. This endowment replaces the President's Association (originally the Presidential Partners program).

The institutional emphasis on freedom of thought, independent research, thorough analysis and critical thinking established Northwestern as a highly successful creator of young leaders who have grown to make a huge impact on our world.

The Northwestern Leadership Trust, like the programs before, will continue to support the President's Leadership Class (PLC).

PLC, led by the University President, is a highly competitive program for first-time freshmen that allows Northwestern to attract the best and brightest students from the region. As the endowment grows, additional programs will be supported.

Dr. Bo Hannaford

President of Northwestern Oklahoma State University

If you would like to join us in the long-term vision of growing future leaders at Northwestern, please contact John Allen at (580)-327-8594 or jwallen@nwosu.edu

Master of Ceremonies

Dr. Jesse Schroeder

Dr. Jesse Schroeder is an assistant professor of mass communication at Northwestern Oklahoma State University. Schroeder graduated from Northwestern in 2003 and started working in the radio and television industry. In 2006, he returned to Northwestern as an instructor. During this time, he completed his Ph.D. and led his students to win multiple state and regional awards for their work in broadcasting. Also during this time, Schroeder led the university through the accreditation process with the Higher Learning Commission. Receiving full 10-year accreditation status is a highlight of Schroeder's career.

In 2014, Schroeder left Northwestern to return to the TV news business. He served the Sherman/Denison, Texas, communities in Texoma at KXII-TV, working as a morning news anchor. During this time, he won multiple awards for his work. Most recently, Schroeder worked for KLTV/KTRE in Tyler, Texas. While there, he served as the primary 6 p.m. and 10 p.m. news anchor. Schroeder also reported extensively on weather. This reporting took him up in the station helicopter to cover the aftermath of severe storms in the area and allowed him to share the stories of those who needed help and assistance during those difficult times.

Schroeder and his family returned to northwest Oklahoma in July of 2023, when he accepted the mass communication position at Northwestern. He enjoys helping his students accomplish their career goals. Schroeder and his wife Amanda have been married for 21 years and have three children, Brayden, Parker, and Mia.

And a special thanks to you for supporting the 2026 Miss Northwestern and Miss Northwestern's Teen Competitions.

Your admission goes toward expenses of Miss Northwestern and Miss Northwestern's Teen as they attend the Miss Oklahoma Competition.

Please join them as they compete the first week of June at Rose State College's Hudiburg Center for Performing Arts.

JESS,

WE ARE SO INCREDIBLY PROUD OF YOU! WATCHING YOU REPRESENT NORTHWEST OKLAHOMA WITH SUCH POISE, CONFIDENCE, AND GRACE HAS BEEN SUCH A JOY. YOU ARE TRULY BEAUTIFUL—INSIDE AND OUT—AND YOUR DETERMINATION AND DRIVE CONTINUE TO INSPIRE NOT ONLY US, BUT EVERYONE WHO WATCHES YOU CHASE YOUR DREAMS.

YOU'VE ALWAYS BEEN WISE BEYOND YOUR YEARS AND CONFIDENT IN YOUR WORTH, KNOWING THAT YOUR TRUE VALUE IS FOUND IN JESUS CHRIST. HIS LIGHT SHINES SO BRIGHTLY THROUGH YOU, TOUCHING THE HEARTS OF EVERYONE AROUND YOU. YOUR KINDNESS, COMPASSION, AND GENUINE SPIRIT MAKE YOU SUCH A GIFT TO ALL WHO KNOW YOU, AND WE ARE SO THANKFUL THAT GOD CHOSE US TO BE YOUR FAMILY.

NO MATTER WHERE LIFE TAKES YOU, WE'LL ALWAYS BE RIGHT BEHIND YOU—CHEERING YOU ON, PRAYING FOR YOU, AND LOVING YOU EVERY STEP OF THE WAY. KEEP CHASING YOUR DREAMS, SWEET GIRL, AND NEVER FORGET HOW DEEPLY YOU ARE LOVED.

WITH ALL OUR LOVE,
DAD, MOM, AND BROCK

Madeline,

As you prepare to pass on your crown, we want you to know how incredibly proud we are of the young woman you've become over this past year. When you first stepped into this role, you were excited, hopeful, and maybe a little unsure of what lay ahead. What you didn't know then was how much you would grow — in confidence, grace, and purpose.

From the very beginning, you took your title to heart. You didn't just wear the crown — you represented it. You became a true ambassador for Northwestern, showing others what it means to lead with kindness, humility, and dedication. More than anything, you inspired others — especially young girls who look up to you. They saw someone who worked hard, believed in herself, and used her platform to uplift others. Your influence will last far longer than your year as a titleholder.

As you hand over your crown, know that it's not the end of something — it's a beginning. The lessons, friendships, and self-discovery you've gained are yours forever. Again, we are excited about all your accomplishments and look forward to your next chapter. We could not be more proud of you!

With all our love,
Dad, Mom, Ben and Katherine

Miss Northwestern Is Ferral Lochner

Ten contestants were judged in privately conducted tryouts for the honor of representing the college in the 1966 Miss Oklahoma pageant. Chosen as Miss Northwestern State College was Ferral Lochner. Talent and appearances in evening wear and bathing suit were the bases for judging the contestants. Miss Barbara Benefiel was director of the competition here.

Miss Northwestern State College, Ferral Lochner, stands between the runners-up in the contest. Cheryl Breckenridge, left, was named first alternate, and Linda Beam was second alternate.

Beating the bass drum as a member of the percussion section of the Ranger Band, Miss Lochner performs in an outdoors concert with the band on commencement day.

Miss Lochner poses for a more formal photograph.

Miss Northwestern was one of several windblown band members on a gusty day in the fall, when routines for football game performances were being practiced.

WHAT A YEAR!

JESSICA, MADELINE & LAWSYN

Jessica, the Miss Northwestern Organization is better because of you. You are a shining example of what it looks like to be consistently in a relentless pursuit of excellence. From late nights to early mornings, you have proven that dreams come true when you pair discipline, work ethic, dedication, and a dash of sparkle together. You left a lasting legacy as Miss Northwestern, and your representation of yourself, your family, and Northwestern at the Miss Oklahoma Competition will be remembered forever. You truly made Northwestern history! We are so proud of you.

Madeline, you are the Disney princess version of a teen titleholder! From your angelic voice to your heart of gold, you have represented Northwestern with pride and grace. You have touched so many hearts throughout this year, and we could not have asked for a better teen representative for Northwestern. We cannot wait to see all that you accomplish in the years to come! You will continue to set this world on fire in all that you do!

Lawsyn, you have brought so many smiles to so many people over this past year! From your photography skills to your passion for raising funds and putting together backpacks for the "Lawsyn Layne's Give Back Gang," you are changing the world and advancing childhood cancer awareness. You have exuded JOY during every moment, and we have loved sharing this experience with you!

As you continue your journeys in life, remember that every interaction, every event, and every effort contributes to the legacy of the Miss Northwestern Organization. Your passion and enthusiasm reflect what it means to be local titleholders and what it means to be Rangers.

You are loved and supported by all of us.

As Always,

Ride, Rangers, Ride!
