Based on full-time enrollment at Northwestern
On behalf of everyone at Northwestern, I want to thank you for your interest in becoming part of the Ranger family.

Choosing to attend Northwestern is a great decision. There are countless examples of how the Ranger experience can prepare you to enjoy professional and personal success at the highest levels.

Every professor at Northwestern is committed to outstanding teaching. This starts by building relationships with students, understanding their educational goals, and creating opportunities for all to learn, lead and serve. You will experience this through small class sizes, personal attention and a supportive campus environment.

Northwestern also provides each student with opportunities to experience the social side of campus life through numerous entertainment events and activities, through membership in one of our dozens of clubs and organizations, or by representing Northwestern as a student-athlete or member of a performance-based group such as band, choir or theatre.

I hope you will soon plan a campus visit to experience first-hand all that Northwestern has to offer you. I’m confident you will discover that Northwestern will be a tremendous college home.

Ride, Rangers, Ride!
