NOTE TO STUDENTS

The Graduate Catalog provides general information about Northwestern Oklahoma State University and summarizes important information about the university's policies, requirements for graduation, regulations, and procedures. It is not intended to establish, nor does it establish, a contractual relationship with students; rather, the catalog is published to provide students with information that will be helpful to them during their university careers.

By necessity, the administration of the university has established requirements and regulations governing the granting of degrees. Academic advisors, department chairpersons, and academic staff members are available to aid students in understanding the requirements and regulations. Students, however, are responsible for reading and understanding the university's academic policies, procedures, and course requirements. Students are encouraged to keep a copy of this catalog as a reference should questions arise. The catalog is also available at www.nwosu.edu/graduate-studies.

Corrections and revisions will be made to the Graduate Catalog each calendar year. The online catalog is the current edition and will take precedence over earlier editions (printed or online) of the catalog.

The NWOSU Office of Graduate Studies maintains its web site at www.nwosu.edu/graduate-studies. Application forms, candidacy forms, degree plans of study, and other forms are available there under the "General Forms" and "Plans of Study Forms" tabs.

CURRICULAR CHANGES

Changes in curricular requirements may occur between catalog publications. Students will be informed of such changes to the extent possible. When changes occur, students may follow the requirements in effect at the time they entered their degree program, or they may appeal to the Graduate Committee to follow the new requirements. Students must choose to follow one catalog or the other; they may not select from the various requirements outlined in two or more catalogs. Reasonable substitutions will be made for discontinued and changed courses.

Announcements in the catalog concerning regulations, fees, curricula, or other matters are subject to change without notice.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

This institution, in compliance with Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008, and other applicable federal laws and regulations, and to the extent required by law, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, genetic information, physical or mental disability, or status as a veteran in any of its policies, practices, or procedures. This includes, but is not limited to, admissions, employment, financial aid, and educational services. Inquiries concerning the application of these programs should be made to Calleb Mosburg, Dean of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management, Northwestern Oklahoma State University, 709 Oklahoma Boulevard, Alva, OK 73717, (580) 327-8415.

COST STATEMENT

This publication, printed by Northwestern Oklahoma State University, is issued by the University as authorized by the Regional University System of Oklahoma. A total of 225 copies have been prepared and distributed at a cost to the taxpayers of the State of Oklahoma of $1,631.25.

SECTION 1: GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORY OF NORTHWESTERN

In 1895, only two years after the opening of the Cherokee Outlet, the first bill to establish a normal school at Alva was introduced in the territorial legislature. This first effort was defeated. However, the next legislature passed a bill establishing the Northwest Territorial Normal School at Alva, the second normal school in Oklahoma Territory.

In a meeting on August 28, 1897, a newly formed Board of Regents for Normal Schools named Dr. James E. Ament of Illinois as Northwestern's first president. He and two teachers comprised the first faculty. The initial enrollment was 68 but had reached 166 by the end of the first year.

In 1919, Northwestern was expanded into a four-year teachers college and was renamed Northwestern State Teachers College. A major change in the nature and function of the institution took place in 1939 when the college was authorized to grant degrees in liberal arts as well as education. The name was then changed to Northwestern State College.

In 1941, a constitutional amendment created the present Oklahoma State System of Higher Education and established the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education. All state-supported colleges/universities were brought under the authority of the board in matters regarding functions, programs of study, standards, and finances. Within the framework of the system, the six regional state colleges, including Northwestern, were placed directly under the Board of Regents of Oklahoma Colleges, created by a constitutional amendment to govern the state college segment of the educational system.

A fifth-year program in teacher education was approved by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education on January 25, 1954. Northwestern's first students in the Master of Teaching degree enrolled in the summer term of 1954. In 1969, the Master of Teaching degree was changed to the Master of Education degree.

The university's official motto was selected from 162 entries submitted by students, faculty, and alumni in a special contest on campus in March 1957. Kay Hutcheson, a junior from Jet, Oklahoma, received a scholarship in the amount of $54 for winning the contest with her slogan "Learn Today, Lead Tomorrow."

Effective August 16, 1974, the name of Northwestern State College was changed to Northwestern Oklahoma State University. In the fall semester 1978, a Master of Behavioral Science degree was approved, a program which now culminates in the Master of Counseling Psychology degree.

In the spring of 1996, the Second Session of the 45th Oklahoma Legislature, with the approval of the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education and the Board of Regents of Oklahoma Colleges, passed legislation that created two new campus locations for NWOSU, one at Enid and the other at Woodward. NWOSU was authorized to extend all of its academic degree programs and educational services to the new sites as demand dictated. A new chapter in NWOSU history dawned as the institution celebrated its centennial in 1997-1998. In 2006-2007, NWOSU joined in the state-wide observance of Oklahoma's centennial, which coincided with its own 110th anniversary.

In 2007-2008, bronze statues representing "The Ranger," crafted by Harold Holden of Kremlin, were installed on the Alva and Enid campuses, with a third "Ranger" planned for the new campus in Woodward, which opened to the public in the Fall 2008 semester.

The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education and the Regional University System of Oklahoma approved the Master of Arts in American Studies degree in 2013, Northwestern's third master's degree.

In 2016, The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education and the Regional University System of Oklahoma approved the Doctor of Nursing Practice program, Northwestern's first doctoral degree, which began offering courses in Fall 2017. Several months later, these bodies also approved Northwestern's fourth master's degree, a Master of Science in General Psychology, which also began offering courses in Fall 2017. In spring 2020, the Master of Arts in Heritage Tourism and Conservation program was approved and began offering courses in the fall of that year. In 2023, a superintendent certificate was added to the university's Education offerings.

During its history, Northwestern Oklahoma State University has progressed from a normal school to an institution offering advanced levels of graduate education from certificates and master's degrees to a doctoral degree.

NWOSU MISSION

Northwestern Oklahoma State University provides quality educational and cultural opportunities to learners with diverse needs by cultivating ethical leadership and service, critical thinking, and fiscal responsibility.

Northwestern Oklahoma State University's Office of Graduate Studies provides quality educational and cultural opportunities that enable professionals to advance in their careers and to act as ethical leaders in a multicontextual society.

VALUES

As part of its philosophical basis, Northwestern Oklahoma State University holds certain values. These include:

Academic Excellence

Northwestern will provide the best possible educational experience for every student.

- *Focus on quality teaching and advising
- *Respond effectively to the learning needs of each student
- *Embrace the role of technology in the educational process
- *Promote opportunities for teaching and learning outside of the classroom

Accessibility

Northwestern is committed to the accessibility of its programs and services

- *Embrace our mission as a multiple site regional university
- *Continue working to maintain affordability
- *Seek new methods to deliver programs and services to our constituents

Community

Northwestern will create a sense of community that extends beyond campus boundaries.

- *Seek partnerships and initiatives that will improve the quality of life for area residents
- *Promote institutional and individual service to others
- *Embrace our role in a global society

Diversity

Northwestern will respect the individual rights of all persons.

- *Value the differences in every individual
- *Promote the expression of differing opinions and beliefs
- *Appreciate the culture and backgrounds of each person
- *Treat every individual with respect

Responsibility

Northwestern will maintain the highest levels of ethical standards and accountability.

- *Act with integrity and accept responsibility
- *Use our resources in the most effective and efficient manner
- *Conduct business in an atmosphere of transparency
- *Promote a culture of continuous improvement

FUNCTION

As one of eight regional universities in the state of Oklahoma, Northwestern has certain functions prescribed by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education. These include the following services:

1. Both lower-division and upper-division undergraduate study in several fields leading to the bachelor's degree.
2. A limited number of programs leading toward the first-professional degree when appropriate to the institution's strengths and the needs of the state.
3. Graduate study that moves toward limited comprehensiveness in fields related to Oklahoma's workforce needs.
4. Extension and public services responsibilities in the geographic region.
5. Responsibility for institutional and applied research in those areas related closely to program assignments.
6. Responsibility for regional programs of economic development.

In addition, the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education have prescribed specific functions for the NWOSU campus at Enid as follows:

1. To assess the community's higher education needs at the baccalaureate and graduate program levels.
2. To provide upper-division and graduate courses and programs which are part of the institution's assigned function and programs within the limits of available resources.
3. To serve as the institution responsible for providing and facilitating upper-division and graduate courses and programs in Enid. NWOSU will contact and make arrangements with other regionally-accredited colleges and universities to offer courses and programs at the baccalaureate and graduate program levels.

Similarly, the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education have determined the functions of the NWOSU campus at Woodward as follows:

1. To assess the community's higher education needs.
2. To provide lower-division, upper-division, and graduate courses, programs, and services which are part of the institution's assigned function and programs within the limits of available resources.
3. To serve as the institution responsible for providing and facilitating higher education courses and programs in Woodward. NWOSU will contact and make arrangements with other regionally-accredited colleges and universities to offer courses and programs.

STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS

As part of its strategic planning process, the Northwestern community has developed the following strategic directions to guide its course into the future:

1. Northwestern will deliver and assess academic programs that include meaningful content and experiences to prepare graduates for successful careers and services to society.
2. Northwestern will provide a high quality educational experience for all students from time of first inquiry through graduation.
3. Northwestern will develop policies and practices that foster a university-wide culture of excellence, accountability, and collaboration.
4. Northwestern will forge strategic partnerships that advance the mission of the University.

GENERAL ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Course Numbering. Courses are numbered so as to indicate the general degree of advancement. Courses at the 5000-level are for masters-degree students and courses at the 6000-level are for doctoral-degree students. The last figure in the 4-digit course number generally indicates the total credit hours generated by the course.

School Year. The school year consists of two semesters of sixteen weeks each, one eight week summer session, and interim sessions available in January and May. Consult the course schedule, available in print and online, for specific courses.

Class Periods. A regular lecture-recitation class period is fifty minutes long during the regular semesters and seventy-five minutes in length during an eight-week summer session. A laboratory period is approximately two-to-four hours in length. Students should not bring their children to the classroom but should, instead, arrange for child care.

Credit. Course credit is given in terms of semester hours. One semester hour of credit is given for one class period of instruction, or its equivalent, per week for a semester of sixteen weeks.

Career Services. Northwestern maintains a placement service to assist its graduates in obtaining desirable positions or positions of professional advancement and to aid hiring officials in securing qualified employees. Career Services is located in Fine Arts room #209.

Master's degree candidates who did not complete their undergraduate work at Northwestern but who wish to use the NWOSU placement service may register with Career Services when they have completed the major portion of their program.

All registrants should report changes of addresses and should notify Career Services promptly when a position has been accepted.

Financial Aid. Students interested in financial aid should contact the NWOSU Financial Aid office regarding options available for graduate students. University policy requires graduate students who are receiving financial aid (including Stafford loans) to complete satisfactorily all hours attempted to maintain eligibility for financial aid. No grade lower than C will be considered satisfactory for graduate student financial aid retention purposes. Students who are admitted conditionally are not eligible to receive Federal Financial Aid.

MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAMS

GOALS OF THE GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Doctor of Nursing Practice. The goal of the Northwestern Oklahoma State University BSN-to-DNP program is to make a pronounced contribution to the supply of doctorally-prepared advanced practice registered nurses to meet the health care needs of the rural and underserved areas in the state of Oklahoma. Graduates will be prepared to provide leadership in the application of evidence based clinical practice and contribute to the development of nursing science through independent and collaborative participation in scholarly activities and health policy, focusing on the improvement of patient/client care outcomes. More specifically, graduates will be prepared to:

1. Evaluate and utilize advanced knowledge and theories from nursing and related disciplines to identify, develop, and implement best practices to improve health care and health care systems.

2. Design, direct, and evaluate system changes to promote safe, effective, efficient, equitable, and patient-centered care.

3. Provide leadership in the provision and transformation of health care through effective interprofessional collaboration and communication.

4. Apply technology and policy development to promote health, reduce risk, enhance patient outcomes and improve complex health care delivery systems.

5. Engage in complex, evidence-based advanced nursing practice.

6. Evaluate innovative approaches to complex health issues leading to safe and holistic care for individuals, families, communities and vulnerable populations.

7. Demonstrate clinical expertise, critical thinking and accountability in designing and evaluating evidence-based care to improve patient/client outcomes.

Master of Arts in American Studies. The Master of Arts in American Studies program provides students with integrated, critical knowledge of American culture and society, drawing on such disciplines as agriculture, English, history, mass communication, political science, sociology, theatre, and education to foster a holistic understanding of the historical, social, and cultural underpinnings of the American experience. The general goals of the program are as follows:

1. To enable students to explore and interpret the American experience from an interdisciplinary perspective that encompasses the fields of agriculture, English, history, mass communication, political science, sociology, theatre, and education.
2. To provide students with research skills and theoretical methodologies through which they will foster an integrative approach to learning about American culture & society, both past and present.
3. To provide students with intimate knowledge of northwestern Oklahoma and the American West through which they will learn about the culture of the United States, understanding the ways regional issues affect the national culture and vice versa.
4. To help students achieve excellence in critical thinking through extensive writing, reading, research, and communication with peers, faculty, and community leaders.
5. To enable students to initiate, develop, and carry out independent inquiry that will allow them to energize the region culturally and economically through a leadership position.
6. To prepare students for a wide range of employment opportunities by developing knowledge, skills, attitudes, and ethics that can be applied to work in junior colleges, archives, museums, and in governmental, commercial, and cultural agencies.

Master of Arts in Heritage Tourism and Conservation. The goal of the Master of Arts in Heritage Tourism and conservation degree is to increase the knowledge base for students who are already employed in a conservation/tourism-based position and for students who want to work or establish a business within the conservation/tourism industry. More specifically, graduates will be prepared

1. To evaluate the environmental history of Oklahoma and the sustainable practices that the state currently employ.
2. To apply principles of interdisciplinary research to create an individual, specialized project in heritage tourism and conservation.
3. To employ various media of advertising and other business communication principles to a proposed business model in heritage tourism or conservation.
4. To engage community members outside of academia by applying the historical concepts of historic preservation, museum studies, and public history to heritage tourism and conservation.
5. To understand and confront the special problems facing rural communities and populations in northwest Oklahoma and the United States by exploring the global concept of culture.
6. To apply skills and knowledge within a community-based, commercial, or governmental organization in order to understand the various ways in which heritage tourism and conservation can energize a region culturally and economically.

Master of Counseling Psychology. The Master of Counseling Psychology degree program provides graduates with the knowledge and skills necessary for functioning successfully as a Licensed Professional Counselor and as a Licensed Drug and Alcohol Counselor. The general goals of the program are:

1. To apply knowledge in the foundations of human behavior and development.
2. To formulate and develop a pluralistic understanding of societal and cultural influences as they relate to human behavior and development.
3. To investigate normal and abnormal human behavior by evaluating different theoretical modes.
4. To assemble a broad-based understanding of human behavior by evaluating different theoretical models.
5. To demonstrate a working knowledge of measurement techniques used in counseling and the helping professions.
6. To interpret and appraise research as it applies to counseling.
7. To apply and demonstrate integration of accumulated knowledge of counseling strategies.

The program results in a degree designed to develop specific professional counseling competencies. The core curriculum of at least forty-eight hours of graduate credit constitute the minimum academic requirements leading to the Master of Counseling Psychology degree. Students whose goal is licensure as a Licensed Professional Counselor are required to complete sixty hours. Students whose goal is licensure as a Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor are required to complete additional hours.

Master of Science in General Psychology. The goal of the Master of Science in General Psychology (MGP) degree is to make a contribution to the supply of academically-prepared graduates in the state of Oklahoma who will perform necessary duties in the field of behavioral sciences. More specifically, graduates will be prepared

1. To evaluate and utilize advanced knowledge and theories from psychology and related disciplines to identify, develop, and implement best practices in the Behavioral Science field.
2. To summarize and critique the psychology literature including core theories.
3. To demonstrate their understanding and ability to implement basic and applied research designs used to address psychological issues.
4. To engage in complex, evidence-based practice.
5. To communicate both orally and in writing at a level that is appropriate for professionals in the Behavioral Science field.
6. To demonstrate the ability to work ethically and effectively with diverse student populations.
7. To evaluate innovative approaches to mental health issues leading to holistic care for individuals, families, and communities.
8. To demonstrate critical thinking and accountability related to the Behavioral Sciences.

Master of Education. The Master of Education degree program is designed to provide a program of advanced study to help educators with their professional responsibilities. The general goals are as follows:

1. To develop knowledge in research, writing, and scholarship at the graduate level.
2. To develop advanced skills and knowledge of future educators.

3. To develop knowledge of contemporary methodologies enabling graduate students to be prepared for immediate classroom experiences.
4. To develop knowledge of curriculum, measurement techniques, bibliographies, and other areas that are modeled upon the most effective master's degree programs nationwide.

Specific objectives of the Master of Education degree- program options are identified in section 9.

SECTION 2: GRADUATE ADMISSION & ATTENDANCE POLICIES

ADMISSION POLICIES FOR THE DOCTOR OF NURSING PRACTICE PROGRAM

Application for Admission: An official Application for Admission must be submitted to the Nursing Division prior to enrollment. Additionally, students who have not previously attended Northwestern must apply for university admission through the Admissions Office. The University application form and information about the DNP Program can be found on the Division of Nursing webpage (www.nwosu.edu/school-of-professional-studies/nursing) or the Graduate Studies webpage (www.nwosu.edu/graduate-studies). Official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended (undergraduate and graduate) must accompany the application. Applicants must submit a current copy of their Registered Nurse license with the application.

Applications are processed by the DNP Administrative Assistant and the DNP Program Director. Once the application has been processed by the Division of Nursing, applicants may be required to participate in an interview process.

Admission Requirements for the BSN-to-DNP Program: Admission to the BSN-to-DNP program is competitive. Only completed applications will be reviewed. Admission is contingent upon meeting all of the program admission requirements. The program admits a limited number of students due to available clinical resources. Applicants must:

1. hold a baccalaureate degree with a major in nursing from an ACEN (NLNAC), CCNE, or CNEA accredited nursing program.
2. have an overall grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for the last 60 hours for the courses required in the undergraduate nursing degree (BSN).
3. Application may be made for conditional admission by students having an overall undergraduate GPA of at least 2.5 with five years having passed since the date of completion of the BSN degree.
4. have a current unrestricted license to practice as a Registered Nurse.
5. have completed an undergraduate or graduate course in descriptive and inferential statistics with a grade of C or better.
6. have submitted three (3) letters of recommendation attesting to academic ability, professional competency, and personal character.
7. submit the program application with a personal essay and curriculum vitae.
8. submit written verification of the number of hours of direct or indirect patient care experience within the last 3 years as a registered nurse or family nurse practitioner, which can be either volunteer work or employment.
9. Students with a native language other than English must submit evidence of English language proficiency. Evidence may include (a) completing a four-year bachelor's degree in Nursing from a U.S institution, (b) meeting the English language requirements of an official TOEFL score (520 for paper based test, 190 for computer-based test, or 68 for internet based test), or IELTS score (6/5 or higher) is required for all students for whom English is a second language. The TOEFL must have been taken within the past 2 years.

Advanced Placement Option (MSN to DNP Option): Registered Nurses who have completed an accredited (AACN, NLNAC, CCNE or CNEA) graduate level (Masters of Science in Nursing) advanced practice registered nursing program as a Family Nurse Practitioner, and who are currently certified in an advanced practice specialty consistent with educational preparation, are eligible to apply to complete the DNP at Northwestern. Advanced practice licensure as a Family Nurse Practitioner as prescribed by the applicant's state of residency is required. Advanced Placement Option applicants must meet the same admission requirements as the BSN-to-DNP applicants.

Retention Standards:

1. Student must file a plan of study, signed by both the student and academic advisor prior to beginning program orientation.
2. Student must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. No grade lower than a B will be credited towards the DNP degree. Students earning a grade of "C" or below in a DNP course may repeat ONE course ONE TIME to raise the grade to the passing grade of "B" or higher. Failure to attain a passing grade after the second attempt will result in dismissal from the program.
3. Students whose cumulative GPA falls between 2.7 and 3.0 at any time will receive a letter of academic warning and will meet with their academic advisor to develop a personal plan for improvement.
4. Student must be enrolled in a minimum of one course per semester and is normally expected to complete all degree requirements within six years after admission to the program.
5. Any student enrolled in the DNP program must register for fall, spring, and summer semesters until all degree requirements are completed unless the student has been granted a leave of absence by the Division of Nursing Chairperson.
6. Student must pass a federal criminal background check prior to starting and annually during progression in the DNP program.
7. Student must pass the drug screen test prior to starting clinical courses and annually during progression in the DNP program. Graduate Nursing Students may be subjected to random drug screenings per the Division of Nursing Drug Screening Policy.
8. Student must submit a copy of a photo ID upon admission to the program before courses start.
9. Evidence of unprofessional conduct or unsafe behavior may constitute ground for dismissal from the DNP program. Evidence of plagiarism, falsification of documentation of activities or assignments, breaking patient/client confidentiality, or pertinent legal issues including arrests or positive drug screen may result in dismissal from the DNP program.

ADMISSION POLICIES FOR MASTER DEGREE PROGRAMS

Application for Admission. An official application for admission to graduate study must be submitted to the graduate office prior to enrollment in graduate courses. Additionally, students who have not previously attended Northwestern must apply for university admission through the Registry Office. These application forms can be found under the "General Forms" tab on the Graduate Studies webpage (www.nwosu.edu/graduate-studies). Official transcripts (not photocopies) from all colleges/universities previously attended (undergraduate and graduate) must accompany applications. Applicants holding teaching certificates or licenses must submit copies of their current teaching certification; until such copies are received, the student will be limited to a maximum enrollment of nine hours of graduate courses.

Applications are processed by the Graduate Studies Enrollment and Retention Coordinator. Unusual cases will be reviewed by the Graduate Committee.

Unconditional Admission. Admission to the graduate program will be granted to students who hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution and who meet any ONE of the following standards:

1. A minimum cumulative undergraduate grade-point average of 2.75 (on a 4.0 point scale).*
2. A minimum grade-point average of 3.0 in the last sixty semester hours of undergraduate work (both undergraduate and graduate hours may be used in calculating the GPA to meet admission standards; however, any graduate hours used for admission purposes cannot be counted toward a master's degree).*
3. A score that places the individual at the 25th percentile on two of the three areas (verbal, quantitative, and analytical writing) of the GRE.* Scores used to meet admission criteria are valid only if the test was taken within five years of the date of application.
4. If a student has already completed a master's degree from another accredited institution, the student may be unconditionally admitted to the program at Northwestern upon providing an official copy of a transcript stating the degree.

*Students with prior graduate work (transfer students or NWOSU students applying for readmission) must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 in all graduate courses in order to be admitted unconditionally.

Conditional Admission. Conditional admission may be granted to applicants who do not meet the requirements for unconditional admission to the graduate program but who satisfy the following standards:

1. First-time graduate students (with no prior graduate work): Possess a minimum cumulative undergraduate grade-point average of 2.3 (on a 4.0 scale) OR a grade-point average of 2.5 in the last sixty hours attempted;
2. Transfer graduate students or NWOSU graduate students applying for readmission: Possess a minimum cumulative undergraduate grade-point average of 2.3 (on a 4.0 scale) OR a grade-point average of 2.5 in the last sixty hours of undergraduate or graduate work attempted (both undergraduate and graduate hours may be used in calculating the GPA to meet admission standards; however, any graduate hours used for admission purposes cannot be applied toward a master's degree).

All students who are admitted conditionally must have a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 (B) after the first sixteen hours of graduate work following their admission to the graduate program. If the GPA requirement is not met, the student shall be removed from the degree program.

Graduate students who are admitted conditionally are not eligible to receive Federal Financial Aid. Questions about financial aid should be directed to the Office of Financial Aid, Herod Hall #113.

Restrictions. The Graduate Studies Office requires students enrolled in the M.A. in American Studies program and in the M.Ed. in Adult Education Management and Administration option to have taken twelve credit hours of undergraduate work in a discipline related to their area of specialization. For those who do not, extra coursework may be required to provide an appropriate background for their graduate content area.

Senior Undergraduate Students: Senior undergraduate students may be admitted to a master's degree program by meeting the following standards:

1. Be enrolled in the final hours required to complete a baccalaureate degree.
2. Submit an application for graduate study.
3. Possess a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 2.75 (on a 4.0 scale) [Unconditional Admission Standard 1].
4. Be enrolled in a maximum of sixteen semester hours of combined undergraduate and graduate course work during the fall or spring semester, or a maximum of nine hours in a summer term (including interim courses).

There is a one-semester limit for seniors to enroll in graduate courses; they must complete all requirements for the undergraduate degree and be fully admitted to the graduate program in order to continue work towards a master's degree.

Non-Degree Seeking Student. Students who wish to take courses for graduate credit at the 5000-level but who do not wish to work toward a master's degree must meet the following standards:

1. Hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution.
2. Possess a minimum cumulative undergraduate grade-point average of 2.3 (on a 4.0 scale) OR a grade-point average of 2.5 in the last sixty hours of undergraduate work attempted (both undergraduate and graduate hours may be used in calculating the GPA to meet admission standards).

If a student admitted as prescribed should decide to pursue a master's degree, all admission standards established for the degree program must be met before the student will be allowed enrollment beyond nine hours. Any graduate hours used for admission purposes cannot be applied toward a master's degree.

Note: Students seeking certification are not considered "non-degree seeking students." For more details on the certification process, see section 10.

Admission to Candidacy. Admission to a master's degree program does not carry with it admission to candidacy for a degree. Students must use the online Admission to Degree Candidacy Form and the appropriate Plan of Study form in order to apply for candidacy.

Students enrolled in all master-degree programs must apply for admission to candidacy after completing sixteen semester hours and before completing twenty hours of acceptable work toward the master's degree. At this time, students are also required to submit a completed plan of study form accompanied with the appropriate signatures.

A minimum grade-point average of 3.0 (B) is required for admission to candidacy. An approved plan of study must be on file in the graduate office before admission to candidacy can be granted.

Retention and Academic Probation for Master Degree Programs:

A student in good standing shall maintain a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale in the graduate program. A grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale is required for graduation; no grade lower than C will be credited toward a master's degree. Students whose grade-point average drops below 3.0 will be placed on academic probation and must have the deficiency corrected by the completion of the next nine hours of coursework. Students who do not achieve the grade-point average at the completion of those nine hours will be dismissed from the graduate program.

Fee Waivers. Non-resident students wishing to apply for waiver of out-of-state fees must meet the criteria for unconditional admission to the graduate program. Application for the fee waiver eligibility must be processed each semester in the registrar's office.

UNIVERSITY ATTENDANCE POLICY

Responsibility for attending class rests upon the student. Absence does not excuse the student from the obligation to do all work required by the professor for the course. Attendance in class is expected. Only authorized absences will entitle students to make up work. Such make-up work shall be scheduled at the discretion of the course instructor. The Dean of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management and the instructor will determine the validity of unauthorized absences.

Faculty will provide a date of last attendance for students who withdraw, officially or unofficially, from the university. This information is critical for students receiving Federal Financial Aid.

The university requires 75% attendance for credit in a course. Each instructional staff member will determine his/her attendance policy between 75-90% attendance for credit in his/her course.

Faculty members may not schedule required class activities which cause students to miss another class without the approval of the Vice President for Academic Affairs and the Dean of Faculty.

SECTION 3: GRADUATE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

ADMINISTRATION OF THE GRADUATE PROGRAM

Graduate Committee. The Graduate Committee has general supervisory authority over the graduate program and is responsible for recommending policy relative to the program. The committee membership includes the Dean of Faculty, the Chair of the Nursing Division, the Chair of the Education Division, the Chair of the Psychology Department, the Director of Teacher Education, one at-large representative from the School of Arts and Sciences, one at-large representative from the American Studies program, one student representative from the Master of Education program, one student representative from the Master of Counseling Psychology program, one student representative from the Master of Arts in American Studies program, and one student representative from the Doctor of Nursing Practice program. The Associate Dean of Graduate Studies serves as chair of the Graduate Committee.

Functions of the Graduate Committee include:

1. the general supervision of matters pertaining to the graduate program and the formulation of policy for the program;
2. the formulation of the aims and objectives of the graduate program and the design and content of the graduate curricula;
3. the evaluation of proposed requirements for programs submitted by the respective academic schools;
4. the formulation of policies for admission to, and retention in, the graduate program;
5. the formulation of criteria and the approval of faculty membership on the graduate faculty;
6. the formulation of policies to provide quality control of courses, faculty, and physical resources relative to the graduate program;
7. the provision of systematic and periodic opportunities for graduate students and the graduate faculty to evaluate graduate programs and to make recommendations for their further development;
8. the responsibility for formulation and recommendation of policy on expanding and upgrading present programs, discontinuance of programs, introduction of new programs, or limitation on enrollment in graduate programs; and the responsibility for graduate program long-range planning.

GRADUATE STUDENT APPEAL PROCESS

The Graduate Committee is the general supervisory body for the graduate program. Graduate students may appeal to the committee for consideration of matters affecting their degree program. The committee meets regularly during the fall and spring semesters; it does not meet during the summer term.

To be placed on the agenda for a committee meeting, the student may submit a letter of appeal to the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies (via email, campus mail, or U.S. mail) stating his or her request, providing as much information as is pertinent to the case. He/She may also request one or more members of his/her graduate advisory committee to submit letters of support of the request. The student and advisory committee members are welcome to attend the meeting when the case is presented and may address the committee or answer any questions that committee members may have.

Following the meeting, the student and the advisory committee members will be informed of the decision reached by the Graduate Committee, whose decision is final.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

Any student may file a formal complaint if he/she believes that he/she has not been treated appropriately by a student, faculty member, administrator, or staff member. The complaint should be addressed to the supervisor of that particular department or office. It is the responsibility of the appropriate supervisor to respond to the complaint. A form is available on the Northwestern website for filing a formal complaint. Formal complaints that have been addressed to the President, the Executive Vice President, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Dean of Faculty, or the Dean of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management will be filed in the Office of Assessment and will be available for review by the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education. In accordance with privacy policies, the identity of individuals will be protected.

CREDIT-HOUR REGULATIONS

Level of Courses. All work used to fulfill requirements for NWOSU's graduate programs shall be selected from the graduate courses listed by department in sections 11 and 12. Doctor of Nursing Practice students should enroll in 6000-level courses to receive graduate credit, and all master's-level students should enroll in 5000-level courses to receive graduate credit. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that they are registered in the graduate section of split-level courses since graduate students should experience a more rigorous academic requirement than what is expected of undergraduate students. Also note that courses taken at the undergraduate level may not be repeated for credit toward the master's degree.

Full-Time Student Status. Both Doctor of Nursing Practice students and master's degree students are considered full-time by enrolling in (and completing) a minimum of nine hours in a fall or spring semester or a minimum of five hours in a summer term.

Incomplete. A grade of I is given only when conditions justify extension of time for a student to complete a course. Any grade of I not removed within one calendar year becomes a permanent incomplete on the student's transcript. Grades of I must be removed prior to taking the written comprehensive examination.

Transfer Credit. For the Doctor of Nursing Practice program, advanced placement will be available for students who already have earned a master's degree as an Advanced Practice Nurse. Those MS courses will be transferable after a review of the transcripts and of the course learning outcomes have occurred. For other students, there will be a maximum of 9 graduate credits that will be transferable if approved by the student's graduate advisory committee. All accepted transfer hours will be counted as part of the student's graduate GPA.

For master's-degree students, a maximum of nine hours of graduate credit earned at accredited institutions of higher education may be transferred, provided the work forms an appropriate part of the student's program and is approved by the student's graduate advisory committee. If a student already holds a master's degree, a maximum of twelve hours of graduate credit earned at accredited institutions may be transferred. All accepted transfer hours are counted as part of the student's graduate grade-point average. Note: Before accepting a transfer course based on the description for EDUC 5933/Classroom Research and Institutional Effectiveness, a work sample needs to be provided by the student. This will ensure that the expectations and assignments are similar to those required by NWOSU. Currently, the expectation is a research proposal, a literature review, a plan of action for the research, and an annotated bibliography.

Residency Requirement. For the Doctor of Nursing Practice program, a minimum of thirty-four semester hours, including the last eight hours, must be earned at Northwestern Oklahoma State University. The remainder of the candidate's program (nine hours maximum) may be earned at other accredited institutions. These hours, or any part thereof, may be applied to the program only if, in the judgment of the student's graduate advisory committee, the DNP Program Director, and the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies, they contribute to the student's overall program.

For all master's degree programs, a minimum of twenty-three semester hours, including the final eight hours, must be earned in residence at Northwestern Oklahoma State University. The remainder of the candidate's program (nine hours maximum) may be earned at other accredited institutions. These hours, or any part thereof, may be applied to the program only if, in the judgment of the student's graduate advisory committee and the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies, they contribute to the student's overall program.

Exception: Students in the Adult Education Management and Administration program may transfer the final 18 hours of discipline-specific courses if the courses are listed on an approved plan of study.

Continuing Education Credit. Continuing education credits from an approved institution will be evaluated for possible graduate credit when the request is submitted with an official transcript. Inquiries should be directed to the graduate office.

Individual Study, Readings, Seminar, and Short Course Credit. A maximum of six credit hours in any combination of Individual Study (5170), Seminar (5180), Readings (5190), and/or Short Courses (5300) will be applicable toward a master's degree program.

Prerequisites. Some courses may have prerequisites. The student should consult the course descriptions (see Sections 11 and 12) or consult with the appropriate department or division chair.

STUDY LOAD LIMITS

The maximum study load for a full-time Doctor of Nursing Practice student is nine credit hours for a sixteen-week semester and five credit hours for an eight-week summer term.

The maximum study load for a full-time graduate student enrolled in a master's degree program during a sixteen-week semester is twelve hours and for an eight-week summer term is nine hours.

Master's degree students taking the written comprehensive examination OR presenting their action research project as part of Milestone 3 must have completed all coursework OR be enrolled in final coursework not exceeding nine hours in a regular semester or six hours in a summer term.

TIME LIMIT

All doctorate and master's degree programs must be completed within six calendar years. If a student has not completed the graduate degree in the six-year limit, the student must then meet with his/her advisory committee and file a new plan of study reflecting current program requirements.

In some cases, the student may be asked to re-apply for admission to graduate study. If course(s) exceed the six-year limit, the student may re-take the course(s) or validate the course(s) following procedures listed below.

COURSE VALIDATION

Credit in courses older than six years will be awarded only after competency in the area has been demonstrated by examination. The examination will be prepared and evaluated by the faculty member currently responsible for teaching the course. The validation process is initiated through the Office of Graduate Studies.

For a written validation:

1. The graduate office will notify the student, the advisory committee chair, and the instructor of the course of the need for the exam.
2. The instructor will provide the exam to the graduate office to be administered.
3. The exam will be returned to the instructor to score.
4. The instructor will return the results and the exam to the graduate office to be filed in the student's folder.

For an oral validation:

1. The graduate office will notify the student, the advisory committee chair, and the instructor of the course of the need for the exam.
2. The instructor will administer the oral exam.
3. The instructor will provide results and a detailed synopsis of the exam to the graduate office to be filed in the student's folder.

For a performance validation:

1. The graduate office will notify the student, the advisory committee chair, and the instructor of the course of the need for the exam.
2. The instructor will administer the performance exam.
3. The instructor will provide results and a copy of the performance (cassette, video, CD, DVD, or other appropriate media) to the graduate office to be filed in the student's folder.

Only NWOSU courses can be validated past the six-year limit. Credit from other institutions which exceeds the six-year limit cannot be validated.

ARRANGED CLASSES

The following guidelines have been adopted by NWOSU concerning arranged classes:

1. Any course taught by arrangement must be approved by the instructor, department head (where applicable), and the dean of the appropriate school.
2. Only courses required for the degree or certification program will be considered for arrangement.
3. Only courses which have not been scheduled in the current year or for which there is a scheduling conflict may be considered for arrangement.
4. The student must be a graduate student needing the class for graduation or certification within the current academic year.
5. Only students who have an overall GPA of at least 3.0 will be considered for an arranged class.
6. Regular teacher education block courses will not be offered for arrangement.
7. No course being repeated may be taken by arrangement.
8. Any instructor offering a course through arrangement must submit to the appropriate dean a written plan (including reason for request, course content, and student requirements) for approval.

9. Students may appeal to the Academic Affairs committee in the event of a special situation not covered by preceding guidelines.

TECHNOLOGY POLICY

NWOSU expects all graduate students to have fundamental computer skills that include a working knowledge of such programs as Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint as well as other electronic platforms utilized by the university. If a graduate student exhibits such a deficiency, s/he will be required to enroll in CMSC 1103/Microcomputer Applications at the undergraduate level either before or concurrent with his/her first semester of graduate work.

GRADUATE PLAN OF STUDY

Advisory Committee. An advisory committee, consisting of three members from the graduate faculty, is formed for each student pursuing a graduate degree as soon as possible after the student's application for graduate study. This process is discussed for doctoral-level students in NURS 6010/Program Orientation and for master's-level students in EDUC 5010/Graduate Study Seminar, which students should enroll in during their first semester of graduate work.

For students enrolled in the Doctor of Nursing Practice program, the advisory committee will consist of three members: the Chair of the Division of Nursing, the Director of the DNP Program, and the assigned faculty advisor.

For students enrolled in the Master of Arts in American Studies program, the Master of Arts in Heritage Tourism and Conservation program, the Master of Counseling Psychology program, and the Master of Science in General Psychology program, members of the advisory committee are selected by the student, contingent upon faculty members' willingness to serve and upon the approval of the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies.

For students enrolled in all Master of Education options, committee members will be assigned by the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies. The chair of advisory committees must be a member of the graduate faculty. Adjunct instructors are not allowed to serve.

Graduate Advisory Committees at the master's-degree level are responsible to assist the graduate student in developing the plan of study. Graduate advisory committees for the Master of Arts in American Studies program, the Master of Counseling Psychology program, and the Master of Education option in Adult Education Management and Administration will also administer the written comprehensive examination (and the oral follow-up exam) and its defense. Graduate Advisory Committees for the Master of Science in General Psychology program will evaluate the student's capstone project or thesis and its defense. Graduate Advisory Committees for all other Master of Education program options will evaluate the M.Ed. student's action research project and the graduate candidate file housed in ALCA. All graduate students must form their advisory committees and schedule an appointment with its members during the first semester of graduate work. Students must be aware that some faculty members are not employed during the summer. Students should take this into consideration when putting together their graduate advisory committees and when scheduling defenses.

Plan of Study. A report of the plan for the student's graduate program formulated by the student and his/her advisory committee must be filed with The DNP Program Director (for Doctor of Nursing Practice students) prior to the student's first semester of coursework and with the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies (for master's-level students) when students apply for candidacy. Students completing graduate work prior to approval of the plan of study should not expect all such coursework to apply toward requirements for the master's degree. All information included on the plan of study form must be typed. The plan of study form also requires original signatures of advisory committee members.

Revisions to Plan of Study. The Plan of Study for the Doctor of Nursing student is a dynamic document. Any status changes from full-time to part-time, as well as any leave of absence, is discussed with the advisory committee, and the plan of study is updated accordingly. The plan of study must be signed by the student and the members of the advisory committee. The new plan will be filed in the student file.

When a master's degree student deviates from the plan of study, he/she must submit a new plan of study form to the Office of Graduate Studies (RH #212). It is the student's responsibility to inform members of the advisory committee of the changes being made, to obtain their signatures, and to submit the new form to the Office of Graduate Studies. Hence, all changes must have the approval of the student's advisory committee. The revised plan of study must be filed with the Graduate Office by the end of the enrollment period of the semester in which the student is to graduate.

THESIS OPTION

Students enrolled in the Master of Arts in American Studies program, the Master of Counseling Psychology program, the Master of Science in General Psychology program, or the M.Ed. in Adult Education Management and Administration program option may take from three-to-six semester hours of thesis credit (Thesis 5330) as part of their field-specific subjects, related area of study, or electives if they choose to undertake an extended research project (thesis) as part of their graduate work. Students interested in this option must visit either the Graduate Studies website at www.nwosu.edu/graduate-studies or the Office of Graduate Studies (RH #212) to receive the booklet "Guidelines for Thesis Preparation and Submission," a list of the "Policies and Procedures for a Master's Degree with a Thesis," and the appropriate forms. These materials discuss, in detail, the specific requirements for thesis preparation and submission.

DNP PROJECT

Doctor of Nursing Practice

For Doctor of Nursing Practice candidates only. The DNP Project for the DNP student is an integrative evidence-based practice/system/population-based initiative. The DNP Project must make a significant contribution to evidence-based nursing practice. Focus areas of the DNP Project may concern health care delivery problem solving, a quality initiative, evaluation of a new practice model, or a program evaluation. Students will begin critically analyzing and designing the DNP Project throughout the program of study, and it will be completed during the final year of the program. Oral presentations and a defense of the DNP Project is required in the final semester of DNP coursework.

The DNP Project Committee will consist of a Project Mentor and a minimum of two committee members. The student will identify a Project Mentor for their DNP Project as a NURS 6511 DNP Project course requirement. The Project Mentor must be a member of the NWOSU Graduate Faculty and must be doctorally prepared. The Project Mentor will assume the role of advising and guiding the student in each of the Project courses in concert with the Project Team and will be responsible for grading all student written assignments.

Two of the Project Team members must be doctorally prepared: The Project Mentor and the Independent Reviewer. One of the Project Team members will serve as the Content Expert. The Content Expert may complement the Project Team by being a member of another academic/professional discipline and may or may not be doctorally prepared. The Site Representative may or may not be doctorally prepared and serves as the liaison between the venue in which the project is conducted, the student, and the Project Team. The Independent Reviewer can also serve as the Project Site Representative and/or Content Expert. The Project Team Mentor must approve the selection of the Project Team Members.

CAPSTONE PROJECT

Master of Science in General Psychology

For Master of Science in General Psychology candidates only. MGP students will work on a Capstone Project in PSYC 5033/Introduction to Research that will evolve into one of two outcomes: a formal presentation of the research project at a professional conference or at either Ranger Research Day or Oklahoma Research Day, or a submission of the research manuscript for publication. Students will also defend their research to their graduate advisory committee. In lieu of the Capstone Project, students may instead write a thesis. The outcome is the submission of the thesis for publication and its defense to the student's graduate advisory committee.

Superintendent Certification Program

For students enrolled in the Superintendent Certification Program Only. This capstone project is a field-based clinical experience and is the capstone activity for the Superintendent certification program. The overall purpose of the assignment is for the superintendent candidate to demonstrate the ability to: collaboratively lead, design, and implement a district mission, vision and process for continuous improvement that reflects a core set of values and priorities that include data use, technology, equity, diversity, digital citizenship, and community.

The capstone activity is introduced in EDUC 5623/The Superintendency and requires candidate collaboration with the university advisor, mentor superintendent, and stakeholders. The process is inclusive of four (4) critical aspects to continuous school improvement: assess needs, create plan, implement plan, and monitor/adjust. The candidate will formally present the capstone activity at the end of EDUC 5693 /Internship as a simulation presentation to a PK-12 Board of Education. The candidate will also prepare a written document inclusive of all sections of the capstone activity listed in the assignment details. the document is a formal academic document following APA guidelines.

COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION

For American Studies, MCP, and Adult Ed. candidates only. Comprehensive examinations will be administered to graduate students who (1) have either completed all coursework or are currently enrolled in final coursework, not exceeding nine hours in a regular semester or six hours in a summer term and (2) have removed all grades of "Incomplete" from their plan of study. The comprehensive exams will be administered each semester based on the following schedule:

October 5, 2023	October 3, 2024	October 2, 2025
March 7, 2024	March 6, 2025	March 5, 2026
June 13, 2024	June 12, 2025	June 11, 2026

Students eligible to take the comprehensive exams should process application material in the graduate office at least four weeks prior to the exam date.

Candidates sitting for the American Studies and the M.Ed. Adult Ed. comprehensive examinations will complete a multi-question essay exam about the core and elective courses that the candidate has taken. Specific questions will be composed by members of the candidate's graduate advisory committee in consultation with the candidate. The exams will then be graded with a consensus vote of pass-fail by the advisory committee. Candidates must also orally defend their exam answers at a later scheduled date after the written exam.

Candidates sitting for the MCP comprehensive examination will complete a multiple choice and short essay exam. The exam is pass-fail, graded with a consensus vote of the advisory committee and/or psychology department faculty. Candidates must also orally defend their exam answers at a later scheduled date after the written exam.

If the student does not pass the exam and the oral defense, he/she should meet with his/her advisory committee to determine the course of remediation needed (perhaps further coursework or directed study). A second unsuccessful attempt will result in another meeting and further remediation. If a third attempt is unsuccessful, the student will be dismissed from the graduate program with no degree awarded.

Students will be notified within two weeks regarding comprehensive examination results.

*Confirm date, time, and location by calling the graduate office at (580) 327-8410. Paperwork must be submitted by the published deadline, at least four weeks prior to the date of the exam, in order to take the examination.

PRACTICUM

Master of Arts in Heritage Tourism & Conservation

For Master of Arts in Heritage Tourism and Conservation candidates only. The practicum is designed to allow students the opportunity to apply their skills and knowledge within a selected area within heritage tourism and conservation. The practicum is completed within a community-based, commercial, or governmental organization. Students are required to observe and participate in a job-related capacity under supervision as part of their practicum experience.

THE ACTION RESEARCH PROJECT

Master of Education

For M.Ed. candidates only (except Adult Ed.). In lieu of the thesis, capstone project, written comprehensive and oral follow-up examination, or practicum, the M.Ed. student will submit and defend an Action Research Project and will maintain a Graduate Candidate File (GCF) in ALCA. M.Ed. program options require three checkpoints: Milestone 1, Milestone 2, and Milestone 3. Below are procedures and details for M.Ed. candidates:

Required during first semester of enrollment. M.Ed. students will complete the course requirements for EDUC 5010/Graduate Study Seminar, will establish an ALCA account, and will contact graduate advisory committee members once they are assigned. Also during the first semester, M.Ed. students will complete Milestone 1 by meeting with the graduate advisory committee or its chair, by completing the graduate advisory committee form, by having the appropriate credentials and required paperwork submitted to the Office of Graduate Studies (RH #212), by putting in appropriate materials to the Graduate Candidate File in ALCA, and by going over program expectations with the graduate advisory committee. All of these elements are required before further enrollment in graduate courses are allowed.

Required three (3) semesters before graduation. M.Ed. students will complete EDUC 5933/Classroom Research and Institutional Effectiveness with a passing grade and will submit the final research proposal and instructor's rubric with comments to the graduate advisory committee chair, who will then evaluate the course instructor's comments and the student's proposal to determine readiness for Milestone 2. The student will then schedule a meeting with his/her graduate advisory committee and will present the Action Research Proposal to committee members. After committee approval, the candidate will secure IRB approval to complete Milestone 2. The student will also continue to put in appropriate materials to the Graduate Candidate File in ALCA. All of these elements are required before further enrollment in graduate courses are allowed. At this point, students should receive a letter of candidacy from the Office of Graduate Studies.

Required two (2) semesters before graduation. M.Ed. candidates will conduct the Action Research Project over two consecutive academic semesters and will continue to add appropriate materials to the Graduate Candidate File in ALCA. Also, after completing sixteen hours and before completing twenty hours, the M.Ed. candidate should also apply for candidacy by completing the Admission to Degree Candidacy form as well as the appropriate Plan of Study form, both which should be turned into the Graduate Studies Office. These forms can be found on the Graduate Studies webpage.

Required the semester of graduation. M.Ed. candidates will complete Milestone 3 by presenting the completed Action Research Project to the graduate advisory committee and selected stakeholders, by adding any additional materials to complete the Graduate Candidate File in ALCA, and by completing all exit documents in order to graduate.

The Action Research Project Defined. The Action Research project (ARP) is the culminating experience for candidates seeking the Master of Education degree in Curriculum & Instruction, Educational Leadership (principal certificate), Reading Specialist, and School Counseling. It is also the culminating experience for those in the certificate-only programs for Educational Leadership (principal certification), Reading Specialist, and School Counseling. Reviewing one's practice, making reflective changes, and analyzing the impact of those changes upon learners are the elements that enable action research to be the mechanism by which there is a positive impact on learners. Effective educators conduct action research on a continuous basis. The Action Research Project is an extension of the work that effective educators do every day. The purpose of the Action Research Project is for candidates to design, implement, and analyze a project to determine its impact on learners. Its intent is to empower advanced candidates to be confident action researchers as instructional leaders in the schools they serve.

The Graduate Candidate File (GCF). The Graduate Candidate File (GCF) is housed in the Aurora Learning Community Association (ALCA) assessment system. All M.Ed. candidates (except Adult Ed.) will maintain this file by putting in necessary documents as they progress through their program.

SECOND MASTER'S DEGREE

A student desiring a second master's degree will be permitted to apply a maximum of twelve hours of appropriate coursework at the master's or doctoral level toward requirements for a second master's degree, subject to the approval of the graduate advisory committee. All coursework in the approved plan of study must meet the six-year time limit, according to university policy.

APPLICATION FOR DEGREES

Candidates who expect to complete degree requirements must file an application for the degree and submit the $25 application fee to the graduate office by October 15 for December graduation, by February 1 for May graduation, or by March 1 for July graduation.

CONFERRING OF DEGREES

Candidates who have fulfilled all requirements for their doctorate or master's degrees are recommended by the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies to the President of the University for the conferring of their degrees. Attendance at commencement is expected but is not required.

Degrees will be conferred at regular convocations. Doctoral and master's degree candidates who apply for graduation in the fall will participate in the December commencement ceremony; candidates who apply for graduation in the spring will participate in the May commencement ceremony. Candidates will participate in the May commencement ceremony if a degree check indicates they will complete coursework for the degree by the end of the following summer session.

SECTION 4: DOCTOR OF NURSING PRACTICE

Goals of the Doctor of Nursing Practice Program. The goal of the Northwestern Oklahoma State University BSN-to-DNP program is to make a pronounced contribution to the supply of doctorally prepared advanced practice registered nurses to meet the health care needs of the rural and underserved areas in the state of Oklahoma. Graduates will be prepared to provide leadership in the application of evidence based clinical practice and contribute to the development of nursing science through independent and collaborative participation in scholarly activities and health policy, focusing on the improvement of patient/client care outcomes. More specifically, graduates will be prepared to:

1. Evaluate and utilize advanced knowledge and theories from nursing and related disciplines to identify, develop, and implement best practices to improve health care and health care systems.
2. Design, direct, and evaluate system changes to promote safe, effective, efficient, equitable, and patient-centered care.
3. Provide leadership in the provision and transformation of health care through effective interprofessional collaboration and communication.
4. Apply technology and policy development to promote health, reduce risk, enhance patient outcomes, and improve complex health care delivery systems.
5. Engage in complex, evidence-based advanced nursing practice.
6. Evaluate innovative approaches to complex health issues leading to safe and holistic care for individuals, families, communities, and vulnerable populations.
7. Demonstrate clinical expertise, critical thinking and accountability in designing and evaluating evidence-based care to improve patient/client outcomes.

DNP Admission Requirements. All prospective DNP students must be admitted to Northwestern Oklahoma State University, must meet University standards for admission, and must follow procedures set by the Registrar's office.

Students applying who earned a BSN from NWOSU may submit an unofficial NWOSU transcript along with official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended before and after attending NWOSU.

Applications are accepted each spring for entry into the fall semester classes.

Admission to the BSN-to-DNP program is competitive. Only completed applications will be reviewed. Admission is contingent upon meeting all of the program admission requirements. The program admits a limited number of students due to available clinical resources. Applicants must:

1. hold a baccalaureate degree with a major in nursing from an ACEN (NLNAC), CCNE, or CNEA accredited nursing program.
2. have an overall grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for the last 60 hours for the courses required in the undergraduate nursing degree (BSN).
3. Application may be made for conditional admission by students having an overall undergraduate GPA of at least 2.5 with five years having passed since the date of completion of the BSN degree.
4. have a current unrestricted license to practice as a Registered Nurse.
5. have completed an undergraduate or graduate course in descriptive and inferential statistics with a grade of C or better.
6. have submitted three (3) letters of recommendation attesting to academic ability, professional competency, and personal character.

7. submit the program application with a personal essay and curriculum vitae.

8. submit written verification of the number of hours of direct or indirect patient care experience within the last 3 years as a registered nurse or family nurse practitioner, which can be either volunteer work or employment.

9. Students with a native language other than English must submit evidence of English language proficiency. Evidence may include (a) completing a four-year bachelor's degree in Nursing from a U.S institution, (b) meeting the English language requirements of an official TOEFL score (520 for paper-based test, 190 for computer-based test, or 68 for internet-based test), or IELTS score (6/5 or higher) is required for all students for whom English is a second language. The TOEFL must have been taken within the past 2 years.

Advanced Placement Option: (MSN to DNP Option): Registered Nurses who have completed an accredited (AACN, NLNAC, CCNE or CNEA) graduate level (Masters of Science in Nursing) advanced practice registered nursing program as a Family Nurse Practitioner and who are currently certified in an advanced practice specialty consistent with educational preparation are eligible to apply to complete the DNP at Northwestern. Advanced practice licensure as a Family Nurse Practitioner as prescribed by the applicant's state of residency is required. Advanced Placement Option applicants must meet the same admission requirements as the BSN-to-DNP applicants.

Retention Standards:

1. Student must file a plan of study, signed by both the student and academic advisor, prior to beginning the program orientation.

2. Student must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. No grade lower than a B will be credited towards the DNP degree. Students earning a grade of "C" or below in a DNP course may repeat ONE course ONE TIME to raise the grade to the passing grade of "B" or higher. Failure to attain a passing grade after the second attempt will result in dismissal from the program.

3. Students whose cumulative GPA falls between 2.7 and 3.0 at any time will receive a letter of academic warning and will meet with their academic advisor to develop a personal plan for improvement.

4. Student must be enrolled in a minimum of one course per semester and is normally expected to complete all degree requirements within six years after admission to the program.

5. Any student enrolled in the DNP program must register for fall, spring, and summer semesters until all degree requirements are completed unless the student has been granted a leave of absence by the Division of Nursing Chairperson.

6. Student must pass a federal criminal background check prior to starting and annually during progression in the DNP program.

7. Student must pass the drug screen test prior to starting the clinical courses and annually during progression in the DNP program. Graduate Nursing Students may be subjected to random drug screenings per the Division of Nursing Drug Screening Policy.

8. Student must submit a copy of a photo ID upon admission to the program before courses start.

9. Evidence of unprofessional conduct or unsafe behavior may constitute grounds for dismissal from the DNP program. Evidence of plagiarism, falsification of documentation of activities or assignments, breaking patient/client confidentiality or pertinent legal issues including arrests or positive drug screen may result in dismissal from the DNP program.

SECTION 5: MASTER OF ARTS IN AMERICAN STUDIES

American Studies is an interdisciplinary field approximately 85 years old. Its purpose is to provide students with an integrated and critical knowledge of American culture and society by drawing upon such disciplines as agriculture, history, political science, English, sociology, mass communication, theatre, and education to foster a holistic understanding of the historical, social, and cultural underpinnings of the American experience. This approach also allows students to appreciate what is both exceptional and universal about the United States. Unlike other American Studies programs, NWOSU's is unique by using regional issues as a springboard to understanding national issues. Hence, nine hours of the program's core courses deal with Oklahoma and the American West while three hours deal with leadership issues in northwest Oklahoma. Sixteen subsequent hours of electives are available for students to focus on larger national issues that meet their individual interests and career goals. Three hours of research and five hours in applied methodology round out the curriculum to provide students with an understanding of the ways in which the northwestern Oklahoma region influences national American culture and vice versa.

OBJECTIVES

The Master of Arts in American Studies program incorporate the following student learning outcomes (SLOs):

1. Enabling students to explore and interpret the American experience from an interdisciplinary perspective that encompasses the fields of agriculture, history, political science, English, sociology, mass communication, theatre, and education.
2. Providing students with research skills and theoretical methodologies through which they will foster an integrative approach to learning about American culture and society, both past and present.
3. Providing students with an intimate knowledge of northwestern Oklahoma and the American West through which they will learn about the culture of the United States, understanding the ways in which regional issues affect the national culture and vice versa.
4. Helping students to achieve excellence in critical thinking through extensive writing, reading, research, and communication with peers, faculty, and community members.
5. Enabling students to initiate, develop, and carry out independent enquiry that will allow them to energize the region culturally and economically through leadership positions.
6. Preparing students for a wide range of employment opportunities by developing knowledge, skills, attitudes, and ethics that can be applied toward work in schools, junior colleges, archives, museums, galleries, media organizations, and in governmental, commercial, and cultural agencies.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Residency Requirement. A minimum of twenty-three semester hours, including the final eight hours, must be earned in residence at Northwestern Oklahoma State University. The remainder of the candidate's program (nine hours maximum) may be earned at other accredited institutions. These hours, or any part thereof, may be applied to the program only if, in the judgment of the student's graduate advisory committee and Associate Dean of Graduate Studies, they contribute to the student's overall program.

Graduate Advisory Committee. An advisory committee is selected by each student in the American Studies program. The committee is responsible for assisting the student in planning a program of study, to compile the comprehensive exam essay questions, and to conduct the oral defense. The advisory committee shall consist of three members of the American Studies faculty (see www.nwsu.edu/graduate-studies/american-studies for the list of faculty members). The committee chair must hold a terminal degree. Members' consent to serve and the approval of the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies is required. Students are required to select their graduate advisory committee and meet with its members during their first semester of coursework.

CAREERS

Job Outlook. According to the U.S. Bureau for Labor Statistics and the American Studies Association, employment for graduates with an American Studies background is expected to increase faster than average over the next five years. Competition for jobs as archivists, curators, museum technicians, and other service positions within these areas are expected to be strong. Employment in career areas such as public relations, sales, and marketing will be increasing at a similar rate. Students with computer and visual documentation skills have excellent job prospects. Such positions as archivists, public relation specialists, college professors, and youth programs manager are also expected to grow anywhere between 8% and 28%. The greatest value of the American Studies program is exposure to critical thinking in diverse academic disciplines that will help in a diverse number of occupational areas.

Career Opportunities. The American Studies program provides students interested in American culture, society, and history the opportunity to apply their background to a variety of professions in many career settings. Graduates of the American Studies program may prepare for careers in museums, government, law, communication, or higher education. Many business organizations have positions requiring American Studies backgrounds for public relations, art management, and tourism. Communication fields are another example of potential opportunity. Public sector jobs, government agencies, and publicly-supported institutions often seek American Studies graduates as interpreters, explaining an agency's or institution's function, projects, activities, or history to the public.

Job Settings. A graduate of American Studies can explore opportunities within archives, art museums, art management, business, the CIA/FBI, cultural organizations, consulting firms, colleges and universities, Department of Justice, discovery museums, foundations, historic sites, insurance companies, living history museums, galleries, government, historical societies, law, magazine writing/publishing, national parks, national history museums, Peace Corps/AmeriCorps, political organizations, research firms, and tourism.

Job Titles. The following are some examples of common job titles for American Studies graduates: Archivist, Business Affairs Director, Collections Manager, Community Relations Director, Curator, Development Director, Educational Programs Director, Historian, Historic Preservation Specialist, Lobbyist, Market Research Analyst, Membership Coordinator, Museum Curator, Public Administrator, etc.

CURRICULUM FOR THE AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM

The curriculum for the M.A. in American Studies degree consists of two components: required core courses and electives.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

Coursework for the degree is interdisciplinary and makes up a 35-hour program. Degree requirements are listed below.

REQUIRED CORE COURSES

1. EDUC 5010 Graduate Study Seminar (required of all graduate students at the start of their first semester)
2. Research (3 hours) (Prerequisite: AMST 5103/Introduction to American Studies or director permission)
HIST 5433 Historical Methods
AMST 5113 Interdisciplinary Research in American Studies
3. Methodologies (5 hours)
AMST 5103 Introduction to American Studies
Choose one of the following:
HIST 5402 Historic Preservation
HIST 5412 Museum Studies
HIST 5422 Public History

Students may take a maximum of six credit hours in any combination of Individual Study (5170), Seminar (5190), and/or short courses (5300) as elective options with permission of their graduate advisory committee.

Any elective chosen that does not come from the list above must be approved by the student's graduate advisory committee by signing the student's plan of study form before enrollment in that course can occur.

All American Studies students must form their graduate advisory committee and meet with its members during the first semester of course work.

SECTION 6: MASTER OF ARTS IN HERITAGE TOURISM & CONSERVATION

In August 2020, NWOSU began offering a Master of Arts degree in Heritage Tourism and Conservation. This 32-hour program is designed to increase the knowledge base for students who are already employed in a conservation/tourism-based position and for students who want to work or establish a business within the conservation/tourism industry. The curriculum includes multidisciplinary coursework in the areas of history, sociology, communication, and conservation that culminates in an individualized project in an area of interest to each student. The aim is to prepare students to serve as leaders in existing and emerging areas of conservation/tourism and to make them more valuable and marketable to current and potential employers.

According to the Oklahoma Department of Tourism and Recreation, tourism is the third-largest industry in the state, and tax collections have increased by over 20% since 2010. Spending on tourism has grown by 28% during that same time period. According to a recent article in the Tulsa World, the Oklahoma Department of Tourism reports that the tourism industry added almost nine billion dollars to the state's economy over the past calendar year. In Northwest Oklahoma alone, there are four (4) state parks: Little Sahara, Alabaster Caverns, Great Salt Plains, and Boiling Springs. There is also one National Wildlife Refuge at Great Salt Plains, and there are many conservation areas in Woods, Harper, Dewey, Ellis, and Woodward Counties. Agri-Tourism is a subset of a larger industry called rural tourism that includes resorts, off-site farmers' markets, non-profit agricultural tours, and other leisure and hospitality businesses that attract visitors to the countryside. Heritage Tourism is also a subset of the larger tourism industry. Heritage Tourism focuses on the history and culture of a given region and can include genealogy, traditional arts, story-telling, music, dance, customs, food, activities of daily life, and can incorporate museums (historical, archaeological, natural history, geologic) as part of the attraction (Travel Industry Association, 2003).

Objective 6: Apply skills and knowledge within a community-based, commercial, or governmental organization in order to understand the various ways in which heritage tourism and conservation can energize a region culturally and economically (addressed in SOC 5263/Public Service Leadership, UNIV 5190/Readings, and UNIV 5500/Practicum).

Notes:

OBJECTIVES

Objective 1: Evaluate the environmental history of Oklahoma and the sustainable practices that the state currently employ (addressed in AMST 5163/Environmental History and Sustainable Practices for Oklahoma).

Objective 2: Apply principles of interdisciplinary research to create an individual, specialized project in heritage tourism and conservation (addressed in AMST 5113/Interdisciplinary Research in American Studies).

Objective 3: Employ various media of advertising and other business communication principles to a proposed business model in heritage tourism or conservation (addressed in MCOM 5033/Principles of Advertising and MCOM 5213/Business and Professional Communication).

Notes:

SECTION 7: MASTER OF COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY DEGREE

The Master of Counseling Psychology degree program provides graduates with the knowledge and skills to become a successful Licensed Professional Counselor and/or a Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor. The program covers wide-ranging counseling topics, instilling counselors with a well-rounded, yet comprehensive, understanding of counseling roles and methods of practice in specified areas. Students establish understanding and integration of knowledge regarding foundations of human behavior and development. Graduate students study, practice, and establish functional use of measurement techniques utilized in counseling and the helping professions. Students also develop an appreciation and understanding of research learning to interpret and utilize empirical evidence promoting current and future professional growth and development. Students become adept at distinguishing and therapeutically addressing normal and abnormal human behavior and development. Participants in the program examine basic counseling theories standard to the profession and establish a theoretical framework to utilize with diverse client populations. Thus, graduates learn, experience, and practice various counseling strategies and techniques integrating evidence-based practices into an emerging repertoire of counseling skills. The general goals of the program are as follows:

1. To apply knowledge in the foundations of human behavior and development.
2. To formulate and develop a pluralistic understanding of societal and cultural influences as they relate to human behavior and development.
3. To investigate normal and abnormal human behavior by evaluating different theoretical modes.
4. To assemble a broad-based understanding of human behavior by evaluating different theoretical models.
5. To demonstrate a working knowledge of measurement techniques used in counseling and the helping professions.
6. To interpret and appraise research as it applies to counseling.
7. To apply and demonstrate integration of accumulated knowledge of counseling strategies.

The program results in a degree designed to develop specific professional counseling competencies. The core curriculum of at least forty-eight hours of graduate credit constitutes the minimum academic requirements leading to the Master of Counseling Psychology degree. Students whose goal is licensure as a Licensed Professional Counselor are required to complete sixty hours as required by the State Board of Behavioral Health. Students whose goal is licensure as a Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor are required to complete additional hours as required by the Oklahoma Board of Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselors.

OBJECTIVES

The core curriculum of the Master of Counseling Psychology program helps to develop a foundation and knowledge of the counseling profession. Students have the option to pursue licensure with additional classes. NWOSU has established the MCP program to model 2016 CACREP Standards. Students in this program will be provided knowledge and application with the following objectives:

1. Develop a foundation of professional orientation and ethical practice by examining the history of the counseling profession, recognizing ethical obligations, identifying counselors' roles and responsibilities, developing advocacy for the profession, and understanding the role of the professions within the community (CACREP, 2016, Section 2.F.1).
2. Examining social and cultural diversity by evaluating pluralistic characteristics among diverse groups, comparing theories of multicultural counseling, reviewing contextual factors of diverse populations, and evaluating the role of counselor with social justice and advocacy (CACREP, 2016, Section 2.F.2).
3. Human growth and development will be evaluated by examining theories related to normal and abnormal development for individuals and families across the lifespan, regarding learning, personality development, and addiction behaviors (CACREP, 2016, Section 2.F.3).
4. Evaluate career and lifespan development by comparing theories and models of career development, utilizing assessment for career determination and advocating for diverse clients in the work force (CACREP, 2016, Section 2.F.4).
5. Examine counseling and helping relationships by displaying a knowledge of the several therapeutic approaches to the treatment of human pathology, comparing theoretical foundations, and demonstrating strategies and techniques utilized to assess human behavior when working with individuals of all ages (CACREP, 2016, Section 2.F.5).
6. Investigate group counseling and group work through evaluation of theoretical foundations, examine group dynamics, demonstrate what makes an effective group leader, and provide experiential group activity (CACREP, 2016, Section 2.F.6).
7. Demonstrate historical detail behind assessment and testing. Administer, interpret, and analyze various forms of tests (individual, group, vocational, personality). Use assessments for diagnostic and intervention planning (CACREP, 2016, Section 2.F.7).
8. Research and program evaluation by critiquing research methods, evaluating basic statistics, using needs assessments, and demonstrating analysis of data (CACREP, 2106, Section 2.F.8).

The LADC option of the MCP degree prepares the graduate for practice as a Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor. Central tenets of the program augment those already established in the LPC track. These added goals include:

1. To examine the neurophysiological underpinnings of addiction and the pharmacological impact of substance abuse.
2. To analyze theoretical approaches to substance use counseling regarding both individual and family therapy.
3. To implement and demonstrate proficiency in applied techniques for both individual and family addiction counseling.
4. To investigate and construct ethical and multicultural lenses through which to understand the process of addiction counseling.

Graduates will be prepared to enter supervision for LADC licensure per Oklahoma State regulations as defined under the Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselors Act (2014).

ADMISSION TO THE PROGRAM

Admission Requirements. In addition to the general requirements for admission to graduate study, students applying for admission to the MCP program are required to have had eighteen credits in psychology. Students must also have taken and passed with a "C" or better an undergraduate statistics course and an undergraduate research course. Students who have not taken or received a C or better in these two courses may be accepted on a conditional basis, but they must complete an undergraduate statistics and/or research course at NWOSU or another accredited institution and receive a grade of C or better for formal admittance. These credits will not be counted as part of their graduate degree.

The student must apply for acceptance into the degree program through the following process:

1. Meet all general requirements established by the Office of Graduate Studies.
2. Submit three letters of recommendation from faculty members or other professionals related to the field of study.
3. Submit a written statement of career aspirations and self-evaluation of strengths and weaknesses related to the field of study.
4. Submit a sample of scholarly written work (e.g., a research paper, term paper, professional report, or publication).
5. Complete an interview with the graduate faculty of the psychology department (contact Dr. Taylor Randolph, Dept. Chair). Candidates will be evaluated on such skills as communication (verbal and nonverbal), ability to integrate information, clarity of purpose, and orientation toward helping others. Interviews will be held during the first week of April for individuals planning to enter the program in the fall semester and during the first week of November for students planning to enter in the spring semester. All materials (see items 2-5 above) must be submitted by the third week of March for April interviews and by the third week of October for November interviews. No interviews are scheduled during the summer session. Students who have not completed the interview and have been accepted into the program may take up to nine hours before being admitted to the program.

Note: Some potential students may also be asked to take the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) as an additional assessment as part of MCP admission requirements. This will be determined by the Psychology department.

Note: Non-Degree Seeking Students who need to enroll in extra coursework in order to become eligible for counseling licensure are required to undergo an interview with a minimum of three full-time psychology faculty members before enrollment in such coursework is allowed. Interviews are usually held during the last week of October or the first week of November for spring enrollment and during the last week of March or first week of April for summer or fall enrollment.

The Graduate Advisory Committee. An advisory committee is selected by each student in the MCP program. The committee is responsible for assisting the student in planning a program of study, to compile the comprehensive exam questions, and to conduct the oral defense. The advisory committee shall consist of three members of the graduate faculty, selected from the psychology department. The committee chair must hold a terminal degree. The members' consent to serve and the approval of the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies is required. The selection and approval of the committee shall be made during the student's first semester of coursework.

MASTER OF COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

Coursework for the Masters of Counseling Psychology requires 48 hours.

Coursework for the Masters of Counseling Psychology - LPC track requires 60 hours

SECTION 8: MASTER OF SCIENCE IN GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY DEGREE

GOALS

The goal of the Master of Science in General Psychology (MGP) degree is to make a contribution to the supply of academically-prepared graduates in the state of Oklahoma that will perform necessary duties in the field of behavioral sciences. More specifically, graduates will be prepared

1. To evaluate and utilize advanced knowledge and theories from psychology and related disciplines to identify, develop, and implement best practices in the Behavioral Sciences field.
2. To summarize and critique the psychology literature including core theories.
3. To demonstrate their understanding and ability to implement basic and applied research designs used to address psychological issues.
4. To engage in complex, evidence-based practice.
5. To communicate both orally and in writing at a level that is appropriate for professionals in the Behavioral Sciences field.
6. To demonstrate the ability to work ethically and effectively with diverse student populations.
7. To evaluate innovative approaches to mental health issues leading to holistic care for individuals, families, and communities.
8. To demonstrate critical thinking and accountability related to behavioral sciences.

ADMISSION TO THE PROGRAM

In addition to the graduate office admission requirements listed in section 3 of this catalog, applicants must also meet the following additional requirements in order to be accepted into the Master of Science in General Psychology degree:

Admission Requirements:

1. Baccalaureate degree with at least 12 credit hours in psychology or related field from an accredited program.
2. An overall grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale in the last 60 hours of courses required for the undergraduate degree.
3. Completion of an undergraduate or graduate course in descriptive or inferential statistics with a grade of C or better.
4. Completion of an undergraduate or graduate course in research methodology with a grade of C or better.
5. Application may be made for conditional admission by students having an overall undergraduate GPA of at least 2.50 with no more than ten years having passed since the completion date of the required psychology credit hours.
6. Students with a native language other than English must submit evidence of English language proficiency. Evidence may include (1) completing a four-year bachelor's degree from a U.S. institution or the equivalent in your home country; (2) students meeting the English language requirements of an official TOEFL score (520 for a paper-based test, 190 for a computer-based test, or 68 for an internet-based test) or IELTS score is required for all students for whom English is a second language. The TOEFL must have been taken within the last two (2) years.
7. Submission of completed Program Application with personal statement.
8. Submission of three (3) letters of recommendation attesting to academic ability, professional competency, and personal character.

9. Submit a written statement of career aspirations and a self-evaluation of strengths and weaknesses related to the field of study.
10. Submit a sample of scholarly written work (e.g., a research paper, term paper, professional report, or publication).
11. Complete an interview with psychology department graduate faculty.
12. Application and acceptance to NWOSU and the Office of Graduate Studies.

Note: Some potential students may also be asked to take the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) as an additional assessment as part of MGP requirements. This will be determined by the Psychology department.

ACADEMIC RETENTION

Retention Standards:

1. Student must file a plan of study, signed by both the student and members of the advisory committee, by the end of the first semester of graduate work.
2. Student must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Students whose cumulative GPA falls below 3.0 at any time will receive a letter of academic warning and will meet with their academic advisor to develop a personal plan for improvement.
3. Student must be enrolled in a minimum of one course per semester (summer optional) and is normally expected to complete all of the degree requirements within six years after admission to the program.

GRADUATION STANDARDS

The following standards must be met before graduating:

1. Successful completion of all curricular requirements.
2. MS in General Psychology candidates will either present a research project or submit a thesis for publication.
3. MS in General Psychology candidates for graduation must successfully defend their Capstone Project or Thesis according to guidelines developed by the Psychology Department and approved by the Graduate Committee.

SECTION 9: MASTER OF EDUCATION DEGREE

Beginning with the summer session in 1954, a fifth-year program of teacher education leading to the degree Master of Teaching was instituted at Northwestern Oklahoma State University in accordance with the authority granted by the Oklahoma State Regents of Higher Education on January 25, 1954. In 1969, the degree was changed to the Master of Education degree. The degree has several programs and options available, including Adult Education Management and Administration, Curriculum and Instruction, Educational Leadership, Reading Specialist, and School Counseling.

Within the Master of Education degree program, requirements for the following certificates may be completed:

- * Educational Leadership for School Principal
- * Reading Specialist Certificate
- * School Counselor Certificate

OBJECTIVES Core Standards

The Master of Education degree program is designed to provide a program of advanced study to help educators with their professional responsibilities.

Upon completion of the core courses in the degree program, students will:

1. Understand the various educational philosophies and their effects on current educational methods and institutions (addressed in EDUC 5203/Educational Practices);
2. Recognize the cultural and social factors that are related to pupil performance; apply appropriate instructional techniques and strategies to meet the special needs of children of differing cultures (addressed in EDUC 5822/Multicultural Education);
3. Locate, interpret, and evaluate current and/or recent research pertaining to public school instruction; apply significant research findings to classroom situations; utilize the techniques of research to plan, carry out, and report original action research (addressed in EDUC 5013/Introduction to Research);
4. Demonstrate an understanding of learning theories and of learning processes as they develop in children during the course of their physical, social, emotional, and intellectual maturation; identify appropriate instruments for evaluating pupil progress (addressed in EDUC 5212/Psychology of Teaching).

* NOTE: The Adult Education Management and Administration degree option has a unique set of core standards. Students in that program are not required to address the core standards listed on this page; rather, they are to use the core standards listed on the following page.

ADMISSION TO THE PROGRAM

Residency Requirement. A minimum of twenty-three semester hours, including the final eight hours, must be earned in residence at Northwestern Oklahoma State University. The remainder of the candidate's program (nine hours maximum) may be earned at other accredited institutions. These hours, or any part thereof, may be applied to the program only if, in the judgment of the student's graduate advisory committee and the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies, they contribute to the student's overall program. Exception: Students enrolled in the Adult Education Management and Administration option may transfer the final eighteen hours of discipline-specific courses if these courses are listed on an approved plan of study.

Graduate Advisory Committee. An advisory committee is assigned by the Graduate Office for each student in the Master of Education program. The committee is responsible to assist the student in planning a program of study and to evaluate the student's action research project or to compose and grade his/her comprehensive exam for the Adult Ed. program. The advisory committee shall consist of three members of the graduate faculty; the chair of the committee must hold a terminal degree. The assignment of graduate advisory committees will occur in the first semester of coursework.

Professional Education Requirement. In addition to meeting the general requirements for admission to the graduate program, the Master of Education applicant must hold a current teaching certificate. (An exception to this requirement is the Adult Education option.)

Teachers who hold out-of-state teaching credentials should consult with the NWOSU Certification Officer, whose office is located in the Education Center #205B, and with the State Department of Education in their state to ensure that they will be certified to teach in their state.

CURRICULUM FOR THE PROGRAM

The curriculum for the Master of Education degree consists of three components: (1) required core subjects; (2) a related area of study; and (3) electives. The core courses in professional education enable the student to develop research competencies and to gain an increased understanding of the school as a social institution, the individual within the school, the learning process, and diverse populations. The remaining hours must be selected from one or more academic areas (a related area of study, an area of specialization, and/or elective courses) as approved by the student's advisory committee and reflected on the student's plan of study.

The completion of 32-36 semester hours of graduate work and the completion of an Action Research Project are required. Students in the Adult Education Management and Administration option take a comprehensive exam and may take from three-to-six semester hours of thesis credit (Thesis 5330) as part of their related area of study, area of specialization, or electives if they choose to undertake an extended research project (thesis).

Course Restrictions. The core courses required for the M.Ed. programs in Curriculum and Instruction, Educational Leadership, Reading Specialist, and School Counseling are different from the core courses for the M.Ed. program in Adult Education Management and Administration. Subsequently, students enrolled in the former programs cannot enroll in the core courses for the latter program and vice versa unless these courses are taken as electives (with the approval of the division chair). Additionally, all requests to transfer credits from another institution for core courses must be approved by NWOSU's Graduate Committee.

MASTER OF EDUCATION DEGREE in ADULT EDUCATION MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION OPTION

The Adult Education Management and Administration degree option is a thirty-six-hour program, including a core of twelve hours of required courses in education, an additional six hours of related education courses, and eighteen hours of courses in the student's selected area of study. The focus of the program is on the preparation of faculty and administrators for post-secondary educational institutions such as community and junior colleges, career and technical schools, and other adult education programs. Students should be aware that this program does not lead to elementary or secondary school certification nor does it lead to certification in the related area of study.

CURRICULUM OUTLINE

1. Required core subjects (12 hours)*
 - A. EDUC 5010 Graduate Study Seminar
 - B. Research

HED	5500	Internship (3 credit)

NOTE: Required courses are restricted, available only to students admitted to the Adult Education Management and Administration Program.

*NOTE: Students enrolled in the Adult Education Management and Administration option may take three-to-six semester hours of thesis credit (Thesis 5330) as part of their field-specific subjects if they choose to undertake an extended research project (thesis) as part of their graduate coursework. Students should visit the Graduate Studies website at www.nwsu.edu/graduate-studies or the Office of Graduate Studies (Ryerson Hall #212) to receive the booklet "Guidelines for Thesis Preparation and Submission," a list of the "Policies and Procedures for a Master's Degree with a Thesis," and the appropriate forms.

+NOTE: The Office of Graduate Studies requires students enrolled in the Adult Education Management and Administration option to hold at least twelve credit hours of undergraduate or graduate work in a relevant discipline to their area of specialization. For those who do not, extra coursework may be required to provide an appropriate background for their graduate content area.

ADULT EDUCATION CORE STANDARDS

Candidates who complete this program will:

1. Understand fundamental concepts, roles, and issues regarding adult education, the Learning College movement, the community college, college teaching, accountability, and institutional effectiveness, including such issues as approaches to teaching underprepared students, using social media as a pedagogical tool, and embracing a service model of teaching that promotes student success (addressed in EDUC 5913/Adult Learning: Theory and Practice).
2. Understand the needs and learning styles, the cognitive development, and the cultural and individual differences of adult learners (addressed in EDUC 5923/Adult Cognitive Styles and Individual Differences).
3. Understand the predominant philosophical foundations of higher education as well as the range of missions, governance, financing, and major practices of higher education and the community college (addressed in EDUC 5903/Higher Education Philosophy and Practice).
4. Review and apply educational research processes and results to classroom curriculum, design, and practice and identify classroom issues, especially as they relate to outcome assessments of adult learners (addressed in EDUC 5933/Classroom Research and Institutional Effectiveness).
5. Understand leadership techniques, managerial styles, diversity, and ethics in the context of adult education (addressed in EDUC 5943/Leadership in Adult Education Venues).
6. Develop knowledge and skills that will assist them in effectively and responsibly managing organizations by understanding the structures of organizations, the interpersonal dynamics of groups through human resource management, the evaluation of political environments, and guiding the institutional culture to achieve the goals and mission (addressed in EDUC 5953/Institutional Management).

THE COMPREHENSIVE EXAM

During their last semester of coursework, Adult Education candidates will sit for the comprehensive exam. This is a multiquestion essay exam about the core and field-specific courses the candidate has taken, according to their plan of study. Specific questions will be composed by members of the candidate's graduate advisory committee in consultation with the candidate. The exams will be graded with a consensus vote of pass-fail by the advisory committee. Candidates must also orally defend their exam answers on a date scheduled after the exam is taken.

MASTER OF EDUCATION DEGREE in CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

The Curriculum and Instruction option of the Master of Education degree is thirty-four hours. This program provides an avenue through which candidates will develop master teaching skills and a supporting theoretical knowledge base. In completing this degree, candidates will construct and utilize a framework for making educational decisions and will use research-based strategies to optimize the learning opportunities for all learners. Also, they will learn to use multiple approaches when assessing student learning and will use the results of the assessment for improving instruction.

Prerequisite: Elementary or Secondary teaching certificate, including alternative teaching certificate. Teachers who hold out-of-state teaching credentials should consult with the NWOSU Certification Officer and the State Department of Education in their state to ensure that they will be certified to teach in their state.

Program Capstone Project

School Mission, Vision and Improvement

Description of Assessment and Use in Program: This assignment is a field-based clinical experience and is the capstone activity for the Superintendent certification program. The overall purpose of the assignment is for the superintendent candidate to demonstrate the ability to: Collaboratively lead, design, and implement a district mission, vision, and the process for continuous improvement that reflects a core set of values and priorities that include data use, technology, values, equity, diversity, digital citizenship, and community (NELP Standard 1).

The capstone activity is introduced in EDUC 5623/The Superintendency and requires candidate collaboration with the university advisor, mentor superintendent, and stakeholders. The process is inclusive of four (4) critical aspects to continuous school improvement: assess needs, create plan, implement plan, and monitor/adjust. The candidate will formally present the capstone activity at the end of EDUC 5693/Internship as a simulation presentation to a PK-12 Board of Education. The candidate will also prepare a written document inclusive of all sections of the capstone activity listed in the assignment details. The document is a formal academic document following APA guidelines.

5783 Implementing State and Federal Requirements

This course is a study of the federal and state governments' role in education. Current school laws, rules, regulations, and policies and their implications for student populations is reviewed. Emphasis will be placed upon ethical and legal decision making on the part of the building-level leader. Pre: Permission of Education Division Chair.

5793 Facilities and Operations

This is an integrated district level leadership course for the development of superintendent candidates who will have the capacity to promote the success of all students through organizing, implementing, and managing educational resources and operations in an equitable, supportive, and culturally-responsive manner. Candidates will develop an understanding of the use of data-informed systems to monitor and improve the district's instructional and leadership capacity. There is emphasis upon the legal and ethical aspects of bond issues including stakeholder involvement. Prerequisites: Principal certification and admission into the superintendent certification program.

5812 Introduction to School Counseling

Understanding the philosophy, principles, and practices which are basic to a sound guidance program at the elementary and secondary school level, and an understanding of the supportive roles of teachers, administrators, and other personnel. Pre: EDUC 5933 & Permission of Education Division Chair.

5822 Multicultural Education

An introduction to the development of required leadership philosophies and principles necessary in establishing multicultural education. This course will cover institutional and individual practices; a review of instruments for the evaluation of behaviors; and strategies for involvement in programs with public school systems.

5852 Comprehensive School Counseling

The total guidance program desired for an elementary school is presented. The different services (testing, career education, counseling, etc.) are discussed and an individual plan is developed along with methods of implementation. Pre: EDUC

5812 & Permission of Education Division Chair.

5903 Higher Education Philosophy and Practice

The focus of this course is the philosophy and practice of the colleges in America. It addresses higher education's historical roots and development, programs and services, finances and sources of support, governance, current issues affecting its role and mission, and how adult learning theory is reflected in these issues.

5913 Adult Learning: Theory and Practice

This course examines learning theories and their application as they relate to adult learners in higher education (androgogy). The focus addresses the creation of pedagogy for college courses that attends to the learning styles and characteristics of a diverse student population in the 21st Century. Topics covered include, but are not limited to, self-directed learning, transformative learning, experience and learning, motivation and learning, adult learning in the digital age, critical thinking, and critical perspectives.

5923 Adult Cognitive Styles and Individual Differences

This course provides an overview of the different micro-cultures to which we belong. Students will become aware of cultural differences and inequalities in the nation and in the world. The course addresses issues of race, ethnicity, gender, class, language, religion, ability, and age, areas that allow some groups to have greater societal benefits than others. The primary goal is to help affirm cultural differences while realizing that individuals across cultures have many similarities.

5933 Classroom Research and Institutional Effectiveness

This course is an introductory survey of educational research design and methodology. The role of research in advancing education, informing evidence-based practice, and using findings to effect change are reviewed. The course is designed to prepare educational practitioners to conduct research using various approaches including qualitative, quantitative, single-case design, mixed methods, action research, and outcome-based research.

5943 Leadership in Adult Education Venues

The focus of this course is the concept of providing leadership in learning environments. The course defines leadership and studies the traits, styles, and approaches to leadership, and current issues in leadership. All of these areas are studied in the context of higher education.

5953 Institutional Management

The course examines the various aspects of managing institutions in general and higher education in particular. Emphasis is placed upon the structure and organization of institutions and their various components, including academics, human resources, student services, finances, planning, and institutional research.

ADDITIONAL COURSE OFFERINGS ~ ALL DEPARTMENTS

5170* Individual Study (1-4 hours)

Directed intensive study on selected problems or special subject, based on approved outline or plan; conference, oral, and written reports. Pre: 16 hours in chosen academic area. Offered by all departments.

5180* Seminar (1-4 hours)

Directed intensive study on selected problem or special topic. Pre: Permission of Department. Offered by all departments.

5190 Readings (1-3 hours)

Directed reading and discussion of selected current topics in appropriate academic area. Pre: Permission of chosen department. Offered by all departments

5300* Short Course (Name of Short Course) (1-3 hours)

A course which is continuous in study for a limited duration. The intensive study presents special subjects and/or topics. Offered by all departments.

5330 Thesis (prefix to course number will depend on title of thesis) (1-6 hours)

A research report. Problem, outline, and report will be directed by the graduate thesis committee.

5500 Practicum (applies only to the Master of Arts in Heritage Tourism & Conservation program) (3 hours)

This practicum is designed to allow students the opportunity to apply their skills and knowledge within a selected area within heritage tourism and conservation. The practicum is completed within a community-based, commercial, or governmental organization. Students are required to observe and participate in a job-related capacity under supervision as part of their practicum experience.

Courses using these numbers must be approved by the Graduate Committee prior to the semester they appear in the schedule.*

Courses using these numbers must be approved by a student's Graduate Advisory Committee in order to be eligible for a graduate plan of study.*

SECTION 12: DOCTORAL-LEVEL GRADUATE COURSES

DIVISION OF NURSING DOCTOR OF NURSING PRACTICE COURSES (NURS)

6010 Program Orientation

Course provides the orientation for the DNP Program at Northwestern. Emphasis will be placed on delivery modalities, resource utilization and scholarly writing. Pre: Acceptance into program.

6113 Advanced Pathophysiology

Course provides graduate-level content of physiology, genomics, and pathophysiology that is necessary for understanding the scientific basis of advanced nursing practice. In-depth study of the pathophysiological basis of disease as it impacts individuals across the life span. Student will gain an understanding of the mechanisms underlying diseases and their clinical manifestations to provide a basis for clinical decisions related to diagnostic tests and therapeutic regimens. (AACN Essentials I and VIII; NONPF Criteria -- Scientific Foundations Competencies). Pre: Acceptance into program.

6123 Biostatistics for Advanced Nursing Practice

Course examines the statistical methods used in the biological, social, and health care sciences. Emphasis is placed on the understanding of statistical procedures and analysis of data fundamental to critical evaluation of health services and nursing research. (AACN Essentials I and III; NONPF Criteria -- Scientific Foundations Competencies, Practice Inquiry Competencies). Pre: Acceptance into program.

6133 Advanced Holistic Assessment

Course provides a theoretical basis for the integration of the health history, physical examination, and diagnostic evaluation to develop a model for advanced nursing practice assessment. [Includes Summer Residency Intensive]. (AACN Essentials I and VIII; NONPF Criteria -- Scientific Foundations Competencies and Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113.

6143 Advanced Pharmacotherapeutics

Course provides advanced knowledge of commonly prescribed pharmacologic agents. Rationales for the use of pharmacologic agents in the treatment of selected health problems are presented. Clinical considerations of drug selection and initiation, maintenance and discontinuation of drug treatment are examined. Legal requirements and implications for pharmacotherapy are reviewed. (AACN Essentials I and VIII; NONPF Criteria -- Scientific Foundations Competencies and Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113.

6153 Advanced Research Methods

Course provides an in-depth study of nursing research methodologies. The focus is on interrelationships among theory, advanced nursing practice, and research. Emphasis is placed on developing skills used in the critical analysis of nursing research for the purpose of determining the applicability and integration of the research to advanced nursing practice. Research focusing on practice guidelines, therapeutic management, and cost containment will be explored. (AACN Essentials I and III; NONPF Criteria -- Scientific Foundations Competencies, Practice Inquiry Competencies; Ethics Competencies). Pre: NURS 6123.

6213 Theory for Evidence-Based Advanced Nursing Practice

Course examines the nature of theory development and relates it to health and health care delivery phenomena. Nursing theories as well as theories from social, biophysical, and organizational sciences are integrated to examine their application to advanced nursing practice. (AACN Essentials I and II; NONPF Criteria -- Scientific Foundations Competencies).

6233 Evidence-Based Practice and Scholarship in Advanced Practice Nursing

Course focuses on how to translate, evaluate, and disseminate evidence in a contemporary health care environment. Individual, organizational, and global barriers to translating evidence into nursing practice are discussed. Evidence will be summarized and an action plan will be developed to produce valid and reliable clinical recommendations for practice. An evaluation plan that includes the patient, health care providers, and system outcome measures will be designed to measure the success of the evidence-based practice initiative. (AACN Essentials III; NONPF Criteria Leadership Competencies, Technology and Information Literacy Competencies, and Health Delivery System Competencies). Pre: NURS 6123 & 6153

6243 Population Health and Health Promotion

Course is designed to examine the determinants of health and distribution of disease. Epidemiological, demographic, and environmental data, national reports and surveys, and legislation are used to address trends and establish priorities to improve the health status of the population. Course focuses on the leading causes of death and disability as well as key issues in behavioral health, environmental health, occupational health, and infectious disease. Planning and development of programs to improve the health status of the population, including the consideration of health disparities, cultural competence, and social justice in the development of health-related programs, are discussed. (AACN Essentials VII; NONPF Criteria --Scientific Foundations Competencies, Practice Inquiry Competencies, Technology and Information Literacy Competencies, Policy Competencies, Health Delivery Systems Competencies).

6253 Health Systems -- Informatics and Quality Management

Course is designed to provide an analysis of health care delivery and policy trends including their effects on the organization of clinical and health systems. Course explores policy, regulatory, quality improvement, and technological impacts in the health-care delivery system and its participants. (AACN Essentials II and IV; NONPF Criteria -- Leadership Competencies, Policy Competencies, Technology and Information Literacy Competencies, Quality Competencies and Health Delivery Systems Competencies).

6263 Health Policy, Ethics, Economics, and Advanced Nursing Practice

Course analyzes the economic and organizational foundations of health care systems. Social, ethical, policy, economic, and global health factors affecting health policy are discussed. The role of health practitioners to influence policy relative to health institutions, government agencies, and patients is emphasized. Ethical and social justice considerations in policy development and implementation are discussed, and models for ethical decision making are explored. (AACN Essentials II and V; NONPF Criteria -- Leadership Competencies, Policy Competencies, Health Delivery Systems Competencies, and Ethics Competencies). Pre: Acceptance into program.

6313 Primary Care of Families -- Adult

Examines the common, acute, and chronic health problems occurring in adults using a holistic approach. Advanced pathophysiology, holistic assessment, and diagnostic strategies specific to the acute and common problems in adults will be stressed. Nursing strategies used to enhance, maintain, and restore health will be emphasized. (AACN Essentials VIII; NONPF Criteria Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113, 6133, & 6143. Co-Req: NURS 6314.

6314 Primary Care of Families Practicum -- Adult

An individualized, supervised clinical practicum to expand the student's advanced practice competencies in direct patient care as related to the care of adults and their health problems. Focuses on a holistic approach to health care of the adult throughout the life span; incorporating the principles of health promotion, disease prevention, and primary and rehabilitative health care concepts which are applied to the management of adults in the context of their family and community environment. Integrates the knowledge from advanced pathophysiology, assessment and diagnostic strategies specific to acute, common, and complex health problems in adults. Stresses clinical interventions to enhance, maintain, and restore health. Develops skills for collaboration with multidisciplinary teams and effective utilization of community resources. (AACN Essentials VI, VII, and VIII; NONPF Criteria Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113, 6133, & 6143. Co-Req: 6313.

6333 Primary Care of Families -- Pediatrics

Course examines the common, acute, and chronic health problems occurring in infancy through adolescence using a holistic approach. Advanced pathophysiology, assessment and diagnostic strategies specific to acute and common problems in children will be emphasized. Nursing strategies to enhance, maintain, and restore health will be emphasized. (AACN Essentials VIII; NONPF Criteria Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113, 6133, & 6143. Co-Req: 6334.

6334 Primary Care of Families Practicum -- Pediatrics

An individualized, supervised clinical practicum to expand the student's advanced practice competencies in direct patient care as related to the care of infants through adolescence and their health problems. Focuses on a holistic approach to health care from infancy through adolescence incorporating the principles of well child care, health promotion, and disease prevention, including the concepts of growth and development, and screening procedures. Emphasizes advanced pathophysiology, assessment and diagnostic strategies specific to acute and common problems in children. Stresses clinical interventions to enhance, maintain, and restore health in context of family and community environments. Develops skills for collaboration with multidisciplinary teams and effective utilization of community resources. (AACN Essentials VI, VII, and VIII; NONPF Criteria Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113, 6133, & 6143. Co-Req: 6333.

6353 Primary Care of Families -- Women

Course examines the common, acute, and chronic health problems occurring in women using a holistic approach. Integrates the the knowledge from advanced pathophysiology, pharmacotherapeutics, and holistic assessment as it relates to health promotion, disease prevention, and management of health problems in women. These include management of uncomplicated pregnancy, contraception, midlife symptoms, and common GYN complaints including sexually transmitted infections and vaginal infections. (AACN Essentials VIII; NONPF Criteria Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113, 6133, & 6143. Co-Req: 6354.

6354 Primary Care of Families Practicum -- Women

An individualized, supervised clinical practicum to expand the student's advanced practice competencies in direct patient care as related to the care of women and their health problems. Focuses on a holistic approach to health care of women throughout the lifespan; incorporating the principles of health promotion, disease prevention, and primary and rehabilitative health care concepts which are applied to the management of women in the context of their family and community environment. Integrates the knowledge from advanced pathophysiology, assessment and diagnostic strategies specific to acute, common, and complex health problems in adults. Stresses clinical interventions to enhance, maintain, and restore health. Develops skills for collaboration with multidisciplinary teams and effective utilization of community resources. (AACN Essentials VI, VII, and VIII; NONPF Criteria Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113, 6133, & 6143. Co-Req: 6353.

6373 Gerontology in Primary Care

Course provides students with the requisite knowledge and skills to integrate holistic, high-quality, safe, and developmentally appropriate principles into the primary care of older adults, including the frail elderly. This course explores the normal physiological and psychological changes experienced by older adults in a variety of settings; theories of physical aging are introduced to support this topic. Myths and stereotypes of aging are addressed. Case finding, assessment, decision making, and management of specific health problems and geriatric syndromes are emphasized. The role of the Advance Practice Nurse in the care of older adults is integrated throughout the course with a focus on evidence-based practice. (AACN Essentials VIII; NONPF Criteria Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113, 6133, & 6143. Co-Req: 6374.

6374 Primary Care Practicum -- Gerontology

An individualized, supervised clinical practicum to expand the student's advanced practice competencies in direct patient care as related to the care of the elderly and their health problems. Focuses on a holistic approach to health care of the elderly, including the frail elderly; incorporating the principles of health promotion, disease prevention, and primary and rehabilitative health care concepts which are applied to the management of the elderly in the context of their family and community environment. Integrates the knowledge from advanced pathophysiology, assessment and diagnostic strategies specific to acute, common, and complex health problems in adults. Stresses clinical interventions to enhance, maintain, and restore health. Develops skills for collaboration with multidisciplinary teams and effective utilization of community resources. (AACN Essentials VI, VII, and VIII; NONPF Criteria Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6113, 6133, & 6143. Co-Req: 6373.

6412 Advanced Nursing Practice in Rural Communities

Course provides an overview of rural health problems, hazards, and disparities. Focuses on selected conceptual and contextual frameworks needed by advanced practice nurses in the delivery of health care services in rural populations. Recognition of the need for interdisciplinary teamwork in assessment, diagnosis, and rural-based health promotion/disease prevention interventions are highlighted. Topics covered include health care access and delivery systems, maternal and child health, gender and violence, nutrition and occupational injuries. (AACN Essentials II, V, VI, and VII; NONPF Criteria -- Scientific Inquiry Competencies, Leadership Competencies, Quality Competencies, Practice Inquiry Competencies, Policy Competencies, Health Delivery System Competencies, and Ethics Competencies).

6414 DNP Practicum in Family Nursing

An individualized, supervised clinical practicum to expand the student's advanced practice competencies in independent clinical management of acute and chronic illnesses across the life span highlighting multicultural care. Synthesis of practice management skills pertaining to cost effectiveness, reimbursement for services and time management will be emphasized. Focuses on a holistic approach to health care of the patients across the life span; incorporating the principles of health promotion, disease prevention, and primary and rehabilitative health care concepts which are applied to the management of the patients in the context of their family and community environment. Integrates the knowledge from advanced pathophysiology, assessment and diagnostic strategies specific to acute, common, and complex health problems in patients of all ages. Stresses clinical interventions to enhance, maintain, and restore health. Develops skills for collaboration with multidisciplinary teams and effective utilization of community resources. (AACN Essentials VI, VII, and VIII; NONPF Criteria Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6313, 6314, 6333, 6334, 6353, 6354, 6373 and 6374. Co-Req: 6541.

6423 Interprofessional Leadership, Collaboration, and Communication

Course focuses on the synthesis of theoretical leadership and interpersonal communication and collaboration concepts with personal and professional values to guide the exploration of complex patient-centered care of individuals, families, communities, and vulnerable populations. Students gain an appreciation for the changing sociocultural context in which interprofessional clinical leadership, collaboration, and communication is practiced. Issues of power, creativity, innovation, ethics, and gender are addressed. (AACN Essentials II and VI; NONPF Criteria Leadership Competencies, Practice Inquiry Competencies, and Health Delivery System Competencies).

6432 Role Development for the DNP

Course focuses on role socialization to activities and responsibilities of the advanced practice doctorate. Career trajectories for the DNP with roles in leadership and clinical practice are explored. Emphasis will be placed on the standards of practice, requirements for regulation of, and socialization into, advanced nursing roles. Students will use critical thinking skills to examine barriers and opportunities for nurses in advanced roles and will propose a plan for transitioning into their new role. The importance of mentors, organizations, networks, and collaborators is emphasized, and selected nurse leaders are explored in depth as role models for use in developing career goals and trajectories. (AACN Essentials VIII; NONPF Criteria Leadership Competencies, Quality Competencies, Practice Inquiry Competencies, Health Delivery System Competencies, and Independent Practice Competencies). Pre: NURS 6423.

6511 DNP Project (Part 1)

Project focuses on facilitating student progress through the development, implementation, analysis, evaluation, and dissemination of an evidence-based quality improvement project designed to remediate an identified practice phenomenon. Project completion requires demonstration of integration, synthesis, and application of advanced practice competencies. The project may be a practice change, quality and safety improvement, clinical program evaluation, or evaluation of practice models. During the DNP Project course students refine their project idea and then plan, implement, and evaluate the project. Project requires a minimum of 60 clinical experience hours defined as time spent working on the project in the practice setting. The nature of the practice hours will vary depending on the nature of the scholarly project and practice experience and is mutually agreed upon between the student, faculty advisor, and cooperating agencies. Practice hours related to project completion are documented by the student and approved by the faculty advisor at regular intervals. Practice hour logs and project deliverables are approved by the faculty advisor and filed in the online course site. Graded on a Pass/Fail basis. Minimum of 4 credits required over four semesters. (AACN Essentials -- All; NONPF Criteria All). Pre: NURS 6123, 6153, 6213, 6233, 6432, 6253, & Faculty Approval. Based upon the AACN DNP Essentials and the NONPF Program Criteria, three areas of course work comprise the BSN-to-DNP curriculum. Focus areas include Scientific Foundations for Advanced Nursing Practice, Clinical Excellence in Advanced Nursing Practice, and Leadership in Advanced Nursing Practice.

6521 DNP Project (Part 2)

Project focuses on facilitating student progress through the development, implementation, analysis, evaluation, and dissemination of an evidence-based quality improvement project designed to remediate an identified practice phenomenon. Project completion requires demonstration of integration, synthesis, and application of advanced practice competencies. The project may be a practice change, quality and safety improvement, clinical program evaluation, or evaluation of practice models. During the DNP Project course students refine their project idea and then plan, implement, and evaluate the project. Project requires a minimum of 60 clinical experience hours defined as time spent working on the project in the practice setting. The nature of the practice hours will vary depending on the nature of the scholarly project and practice experience and is mutually agreed upon between the student, faculty advisor, and cooperating agencies. Practice hours related to project completion are documented by the student and approved by the faculty advisor at regular intervals. Practice hour logs and project deliverables are approved by the faculty advisor and filed in the online course site. Graded on a Pass/Fail basis. Minimum of 4 credits required over four semesters. (AACN Essentials -- All; NONPF Criteria All). Pre: NURS 6123, 6153, 6233, 6432, 6253, & Faculty Approval. Instructor Permission Required. Based upon the AACN DNP Essentials and the NONPF Program Criteria, three areas of course work comprise the BSN-to-DNP curriculum. Focus areas include Scientific Foundations for Advanced Nursing Practice, Clinical Excellence in Advanced Nursing Practice, and Leadership in Advanced Nursing Practice.

6531 DNP Project (Part 3)

Project focuses on facilitating student progress through the development, implementation, analysis, evaluation, and dissemination of an evidence-based quality improvement project designed to remediate an identified practice phenomenon. Project completion requires demonstration of integration, synthesis, and application of advanced practice competencies. The project may be a practice change, quality and safety improvement, clinical program evaluation, or evaluation of practice models. During the DNP Project course students refine their project idea and then plan, implement, and evaluate the project. Project requires a minimum of 60 clinical experience hours defined as time spent working on the project in the practice setting. Based upon the AACN DNP Essentials and the NONPF Program Criteria, three areas of course work comprise the BSN-to-DNP curriculum. Focus areas include Scientific Foundations for Advanced Nursing Practice, Clinical Excellence in Advanced Nursing Practice, and Leadership in Advanced Nursing Practice.*

6541 DNP Project (Part 4)

Project focuses on facilitating student progress through the development, implementation, analysis, evaluation, and dissemination of an evidence-based quality improvement project designed to remediate an identified practice phenomenon. Project completion requires demonstration of integration, synthesis, and application of advanced practice competencies. The project may be a practice change, quality and safety improvement, clinical program evaluation, or evaluation of practice models.
