

Miss Cinderella Pageant 2019

Northwestern Oklahoma State University

WARDROBE GUIDELINES

Contestants, please use good judgment in selecting your wardrobe for the Miss Cinderella activities. The Pageant Committee has the right to decide if a dress, talent outfit, or gown is inappropriate.

Sunday, October 6

Pageant Orientation: Dress appropriately (dress, jumpsuit, skirt or pants & dress blouse, jacket; no jeans) as your picture will be taken by Northwestern personnel for the judges' books and pageant program. Group pictures will also be taken so keep this in mind with what you select to wear as it will represent you and your school in the pictures.

Thursday, October 24

Talent Rehearsal: Dress comfortably—jeans OK here! Very Important--bring your talent outfit with you to rehearsal. Talent outfit should be age-appropriate.

Informal Luncheon at the President's House: You will be receiving a NWOSU Homecoming T-shirt to wear with some jeans or comfortable pants for a picture with the President at the luncheon. If you are in the first group of talent rehearsal, you will receive your shirt at talent check-in. If you are in the second group of talent rehearsal, you will receive your shirt at the President's House.

Judge's Buffet: Appropriate dress is something neat and semi-dressy. A nice dress is suggested; not pants. Judges are aware of what you choose to wear.

Talent Show: You may wear comfortable clothes as you will change in the dressing room backstage into your talent outfit. You will not be on stage at all except for your talent performance.

Friday, October 25

Interviews: Appropriate dress is something neat and semi-dressy. A nice dress is suggested; not pants. Remember that you are a teen girl, the judges expect you to dress as a teen girl would. Judges take into account your communication skills, as well as, what you wear during your interview.

Pageant Rehearsal: Dress comfortably in jeans or pants and wear the NWOSU Homecoming T-shirt provided to you during talent check-in. Bring the shoes that you plan to wear with your gown to practice walking down the steps and on the stage. If you need to practice walking in your gown to get used to the steps, please bring it to rehearsal.

President's Dinner: This is a semi-formal occasion. Contestants should wear a long gown (other than the one you will wear in the pageant) or formal. This is a good time to wear a dress you wore for another special occasion, such as a prom or dance.

Cinderella Pageant: A T-shirt representing your high school, tasteful jeans, and tennis shoes will be worn for the opening number. A floor-length gown that is age appropriate is required. You will be on stage individually and in a group in this dress. Keep in mind the angle that the audience will see you and beware of high slits on some dresses.

Saturday, October 26

Parade: You will be riding in an antique or vintage car. Please wear a long gown and your local crown/banner (if you received one). The gown worn in the pageant may be worn in the parade as well. Wear comfortable shoes as some car drivers may ask you to remove your shoes to protect the seat covering. Bring a jacket, shawl, or wrap, if it is cold and an umbrella, if it looks rainy.
